

WORKS BY R. M. BALLANTYNE.

"In his tales of the sea, of the forest and the flames, and in all that he writes, there is a fidelity to nature and a knowledge of many paths of life which are not surpassed by any author in his special field of literature."—Morning Post.

With Illustrations. Crown 8vo. 5s. each.

THE BUFFALO RUNNERS.

A TALE OF THE RED RIVER PLAINS.

"Mr. Ballantyne tells an admirable story of 'the struggle for life valiantly and victoriously fought by the early colonists of the Red River region in North-Western America. As the scene of this thrilling narrative he has chosen the very ground upon which the populous and prosperous city of Winnipeg stands at the present day."—Daily Telegraph.

"Exactly the book in which boys will revel. The adventures never surpass the bounds of reality, and the tone of the book is excellent."—Record.

"In Mr. Ballantyne's work there is such a manly style about the heroes, and their courage, truth, and devotion is such that any boy might be proud of following their example."—Public Opinion.

"No more entertaining gift-book for boys could possibly be desired."—Dundee Courier.

CHARLIE TO THE RESCUE.

A TALE OF THE SEA AND THE ROCKIES.

"In 'Charlie to the Rescue' Mr. Ballantyne supplies his constituency—which is now a large and well-satisfied one—with a sufficiency of battles, sieges, and escapes; the troubles of ranchmen, whose lives are threatened both by white and by black scoundrels, are admirably reproduced. It is a capital story."—Spectator.

BLOWN TO BITS;

OR, THE LONELY MAN OF RAKATA. A TALE OF THE MALAY ARCHIPELAGO.

"A capital story, written in the author's old style, and full of life and action from beginning to end."—Standard.

"The book abounds in matter of exceptional interest, and should find its way into the hands of all young people who would properly estimate the wide-spreading and far-reaching influences and the extraordinary character of the Krakatoa outburst."—Manchester Courier.
