not see their way to do this, but said they would add $600. With splendid gener-osity Messrs. Walker & Son said, "then we will make up the deficiency. We will give the cup and place inside of it for the winning horse twenty twenty-dollar gold Thus their brother distiller has mother beautiful cup, thanks to the vic tory of his horse Saragossa, to grace sideboard at least for a year, the trophy having to be won by the same stable twice in succession before becoming its property—as well as $850 in cash to swell his bank account.

But we have in some particulars rather been putting the cart before the horse. Half a dozen started for the race, of whom Mr. Denny Higgins' (Prescott) Bel Demonio was the favorite, his owner standing himself to win $2,000 in bets. When the flag fell Mr. Seagram's sec representative imp. Morpheus—the Waterloo gentleman evidently has an abiding faith in double-barrels, for in the maje ity of instances he ran two horses in the one race, at least on the first three days—dashed off in front and led the field at a merry clip considering the going. He maintained the pace for a mile and then Saragossa, having come through the field he let him take up the work in hand and he successfully completed it, although first Major-General and then Bel Demonio. both owned by Mr. Higgins, went at him. But he stalled them both off, ultimately winning one of the hardest and be fought-out races of the meeting by a neck, the fellow with the military title being third a length off and Mr. Dawes' Royal George, who ran gamely, fourth, Morpheus tifth and Bowstring last.

A welter selling event completed the first day's sport. Nine started on fairly even terms. Mr. Davies' Bell of Orange was the first to show, the first quarter Mr. Michael Daly's Come Home manifested a disposition to take the advice contained in his name. At least he forged to the front and, never again being headed, managed to beat out Messrs. Smith and Martin's Cottonade by half a length, Blizzard coming third, two lengths off, followed by Bell of Orange, Gonzales, Wanderer, Spring-Jugurtha, buck and Mr. Seagram's Eppleworth as SECOND DAY. FRIDAY, MAY 25TH.

THE second was what is called an off day, that is, no event of importance was down to be decided. It was very much an off-day, the scratches being numerous and the fields generally light. Moreover it rained and rained heavily, making the track almost knee-deep in mud. Of 64 entries for the half dozen events on the card only 29 started, no less than 35 having the pen put through their names.

Four came out for the Grand & Purse of $400 over three-quarters of mile. No trouble was experienced getting the quartette off, and it was ply a case of Mr. Seagram's imp. pheus first from the drop of the fla Mirage was the last to move and the to finish, being two lengths bel Morpheus. Foam came third, anothe couple of lengths behind Mirage, who
