Bread crumbs are better than pastry in making cocoanut, potato, apple and lemon puddings. Strew crumbs over the dish to the sual depth of crust, pour in the pudding and strew another layer of crumbs over the top, then bake.
Brown bread.-Sift two quarts of cornmea! and put it to soak in warm buttermilk laver night. In the morning add a pint of moand best two and a-half pints of rye-meal, salt, and buttermilk sufficient to moisten the whole : add soda to neutralize the acid of the buttermilk. Mix thoroughly. Bake three hours in a moderate oven. If the hard crust formed over the loaf is objected to, steam four or five hours. Sour milk may be used instead of butlermilk. If sweet milk or water is used, instead of the other two liquids, baking powder must be sifted with the rye meal.
Baked Apple Pudding. - One quart Hour, three large teaspoonfuls baking powder, one-half teaspoonful salt mixed well together. Add one large tablespoonful butter and enough sweet milk to make a soft dough. Roll out good half-inch pieces. Peel and quarter some good tart apples. Put each quarter on a square of dough, sprinkle over it sugar and press the edges firmly together. Place in a deep pan, sprinkle over sugar and a little cinnamon, and put a bit of butter on each. Fill the pan with Water (boiling) just leaving top of dumplings hard sauce. Serve with sweetened cream or hard sauce.
