

CHICAGO MARKET.

WHEAT BREAKS 2 CENTS.

CORN AND OATS A SHADE OFF

PROVISIONS DULL AND LOWER.

Chicago, July 5.

The steady European cables were not enough to support the Chicago grain market. From the start weakness was apparent. July, Sept., and Dec., moved pretty much together, breaking from 2c to 2½c. The longs have not yet, by any means, sold their holdings, on breaks they will sustain markets. On weak spots to-morrow, buy for a quick turn of a couple of cents. Corn and oats are controlled entirely by local influences, outsiders have little interest in them.

Provisions are weak and neglected, outsiders where interested are generally long.
