

Sentence.	Connec.	Qualify.	Subject	Pred.	Direct Comp.	Indirect Comp.	Extension.
A Prin.		B	He	will lead	steps my		aright in † way the long C
B Adj. to He			who	guides	flight thy certain		through † sky, from † zone the boundless to † zone
C Adj. to way		alone	I	must tread	that
A Adv. to was	when		I	was		boy —	A
B Princ.			it	was		a joy —
						all my to rest in † shade —
						its scented high
C Adv. to forest	when	The	sun	was
D Adv. to rest	and	(the night)	river	made	murmur — a musical

I give these as specimens taken at random, hoping that they may be of some service to my brother teachers.

NEMO.

The many plans of exhibiting at a written examination, the analysis of a passage taken from the English authors has led us to insert the foregoing communication. The tabular form will lead others to compare it with the one they use, and, no doubt, lead them to see the necessity for uniformity. The basis of sentence analysis is one and the same, and whatever form this teacher or that teacher may use, can readily be reduced to the simple form which has been more than once inserted in the Educational Record.