

"Thy talents rare, and filial love,
E'en more have fairly won;
Still be thou mine by other bonds,
My pupil and my son!"

Murillo knew, e'en when the words
Of generous feeling passed his lips,
Sebastian's talent soon must lead
To fame, that would his own eclipse.
And constant to his purpose still,
He joyed to see his pupil gair,
Beneath his care, such matchless skill,
As made his name the pride of Spain.

NOTE—Sebastian Gomez, better known as the Mulatto of Murillo, was one of the most celebrated painters of Spain. There may yet be seen exhibited in Seville, the picture he was found painting by his master, with a number of others. The incident related above occurred about the year 1630.

NOTICE.

To the Members of Illinois Yearly Meeting:

At our late Yearly Meeting the committee in charge of "Western Department" in one of our society papers, was continued, and the committee decided to continue with the YOUNG FRIENDS' REVIEW. The correspondents named last year were continued for the coming year, and it is earnestly desired that you diligently endeavor to increase the subscription list. It certainly would be entirely within our reach to double our list from this Yearly Meeting. There are some localities that have never responded with a communication of any character. This is not right. The paper is, and will be to some extent, what we make it. We can have a twenty-page weekly if we do our whole duty. And how can we make a more worthy effort than in this direction? You in the far West give us a little account of your surroundings, your desires and needs, of your efforts to hold meetings, of visiting Friends, and any other items of general interest, just such as you first look for on receiving the paper. Sincerely,

EDWARD COALE, Chairman of Com.
