Every description of Gentlemen's Wearing Apparel constantly on hand, or made to order on the shortest notice at reasonable rates. Mustreal, March 6. 1856.

Will be ready on the 20th of March, (NEW AND REVISED EDITION,)

THE LIFE OF ST. ELIZABETH OF HUNGARY, by the Count de Montalembert. The Life, translisted by Mary Hacket, and the Introduction, by Mrs. Sadlier. 12 mo., of 427 pages, with a fine steel engraving. Cloth, 52; cloth gilt, 7s 6d. The first edition of Three Thousand having all been sold, and there being many calls for the work, we have put to press a New Edition. The translation has been rend over with the French copy and carefully corrected. () the merits of the work, we can safely say, that no biggraphy ever issued from the American Press equals it - it's as interesting as a romance.

The Press have been unanimous in praise of the first edition. We give extracts from a few of them : "The book is one of the most interesting, instructive, and edifying that have been produced in our times, and every Catholic will read it with devout thankfulness to the Almighty God, that he has been pleased to raise up, in this faithless age, a layman who can write so edifying a work. It is marked by rare learning, fine relistic skill, and correct taste; and breathes the firmest faith and the most tender piety. His work is perefreshing as springs of water in a sandy desert. . Le! avery one who can read purchase and read the beautiff. Life of one of the most levely and most favored wints that have ever been vouchsafed to harlow out carthly pilgrimage." -Brownson's Review.

"The whole introduction shows the hand of master, and it loses nothing in Mrs. S.dlier's racy and elegant English. It enhances the merit of the work, which, in the Dublin edition, was published without this essential prefice. Of the Life itself, we cannot speak too highly. The exquisite character of the dear St. Elizabeth, (as the good Germans have at all times styled her), is brought out with a clearness, a tenderness, and a vigor, which bring tears from the heart. We do not think there is any book of the kind in English, at all to be compared to this 'Life of Saint Elizabeth.'"—American Cell.

"We might say much in praise of the narrative and Life of St. Elizabeth, attending which, from the beginning to the end, is a charm which cannot fail to attract and secure the attention of the reader, did not the well known abilities of this distinguished author render it unnecessary.... We cheerfully re-commend the work to our readers."-Pittsburg Ca-

"This magnificent work of the great French Tribune of true liberty, has at last been translated into SPRING ANNOUNCEMENTS OF NEW BOOKS. English. The name of its Author is a sufficient guarantee for the value of the work. Montalembert is one of the lights of the age-a man who combines rare power of intellect, with unswerving devotion to the cause of liberty and the Church. Let every one who desires to study the spirit of the Middle Ages, read this book."-Catholic Telegraph.

INSTITUTE FOR YOUNG LADIES, UNDER THE DIRECTION OF

LADIES OF THE SACRED HEART,

LONDON, C. W.

THIS Institution, situated in a healthy and agreeable location, and favored by the patronage of His Lordship the Bishop of London, will be opened on the first Monday of September, 1857.

In its plan of Literary and Scientific Studies, it ine every advantage that can be derived from an intelligent and conscientious instruction in the various branches of learning becoming their sex. Facility will be offered for the acquisition of those Ornamental Arts and Sciences, which are considered requisite in a finished education; while propriety of Deportment, Personal Neatness, and the principles of Morality will form subjects of particular assiduity. The Health of the Pupils will also be an object of peculiar vigilance, and in case of sickness, they will be treated with maternal solicitude.

The knowledge of Religion and of its duties will receive that attention which its importance demands, as the primary end of all true Education, and hence will form the basis of every class and department. Differences of religious tenets will not be an obstacle to the admission of Pupils, provided they be willing to conform to the general Regulations of the Insti-

DIRECTIONS FOR USB .- Adult, one table spoonful per day. Children over eight years, a dessert spoonful; children from five to eight years ten spoonful. As no direction can be applicable to all constitutions, take enough to operate on the bowels twice a day. Mr. Kennedy gives personal attendance in bad onsus of Scrofula.

KENNEDY'S SALT RHEUM OINTMENT. TO BE USED IN CONNECTION WITH THE MEDICAL DISCOVERY.

For Inflamation and Humor of the Eyes, this gives immediate relief; you will apply it on a linen rag when going to bed. For Scald Head, you will cut the hair off the affected improvement in a few days. For Salt Rheum, rub it well in as often as convenient. For Scales on an inflamed surface, you will rub it in to your heart's content; it will give you such real part, apply the Ointment freely, and you will see the comfort that you cannot help wishing well to the inventor. For Scabs: these commence by a thin, acrid Suid oozing through the skin, soon hardening on the surface; in a short time are full of yellow matter; some are on an inflamed surface, some are not; will apply the Cintment freely, but you do not rub it in. For Sore Legs: this is a common disease, more so than is generally supposed; the skin turns purple, covered with scales, itches intolerably, sometimes forming running sores; by applying the Ointment the itching and scales will disappear in a few days but you must keep on with the Ointment until the

This Ointment agrees with every flesh, and gives immediate relief in every skin discuse floch is hele to. Price, 2s 6d per Box.
