

LEATHER.—Perhaps no other branch of business shows so little change from week to week as this. There are still no special features to notice, a fair trade is being done and prices are steady and without change. Stocks are well supplied in all lines, yet there is no accumulation. The volume of business for October was fairly well up to the mark, but payments are not as good as is desired.

WOOL.—Except for coarse and low grades the demand for fleece is limited, and in selected the movement is sluggish. The factories are not taking much pulled wool and the transactions are light. Prices are nominally unchanged.
