Mercantile Summary.

THE auction sale of J. B. Sorley's stock of leather, on Wednesday, by R. A. Hoskins & Co, was very successful, realizing good prices.

THE DECEASE of Mr. J. C. Griffith, for many years a retail merchant of Toronto, and brother of Messrs. W. & R. Griffith and Mr. Thomas Griffith, wholesale merchants, is reported in the daily papers.

It is understood that the Dominion government have purchased the lot on the west of the present site of the Custom House. The whole plot will afford ample accommodation for the new Custom House, which it is expected will be gone on with this summer.

Mr. Sam'l Norris, a small trader of Cayuga was burned out some few months ago, under rather suspicious circumstances which we mentioned at the time, and in consequence was never able to collect his insurance money; he has now absconded after having committed the crime of forgery. Under these circumstances the companies will scarcely be held liable for the amount of their policies.

A PRIVATE letter from a respectable source in England, says that Prussian agents are buying horses freely in Great Britain.
