

Guelph, Ont.—The committee of the Paisley Street Church here have awarded the contract for the erection of a $10,000 church to Inspector Oakes of this place. This edifice is to take the place of the one destroyed by fire last spring.

Edmonton, Alta.—The Baptist church board here has purchased land at the corner of Synchuate avenue and Morris street, on which they intend, in the near future, to erect a church.

Halifax, N. S.—The contract for the erection of the proposed $125,000 Church of England cathedral here has been awarded to S. M. Brookfield, Limited, of this place.

Residences and Flats

Toronto.—P. H. Phinney, architect, Toronto, has prepared plans for the erection of an $8,000 brick and stone residence for J. Wilkins of this city. Specifications include cement work, cut stone trimmings, brick, tile, oak mantels, electrical work, modern plumbing, and refrigerator. Brick work will be done by the owner.

Toronto.—Architect P. H. Phinney, of this city, has prepared plans for an auto garage and stable 25 x 40 feet, for J. Wilkins, Wellesley street, here. Specifications include stone foundation, brick superstructure, concrete work, cut stone, and the proposed structure will be electrically lighted, and fitted with drainage and water taps. Brick work will be done by the owner.

York, Ont.—Architects G. Miller & Co., Toronto, have prepared plans for the construction of a Methodist parsonage at York, Ont., at a cost of between $12,000 and $15,000. The exterior will be of dark red brick with raked joints and stone trimmings, with a foundation of rubble stone brick lined. The roof will display asbestos, slate and stained shingles. The interior finish will be quartered oak, white wood and pine. Specifications call for hot water heating, electric lighting, modern plumbing, cement work, cut stone, brick tile, three mantels, metallic bath, two "I" beams, electrical work, shingle stain, plastic relief work, plate glass, art glass, and refrigerator. Contractor to include in tender birch or maple floors in vestibule, hall staircase, and reception room.

Stratford, Ont.—Architect W. J. Ireland, of this place, announces that he is preparing plans for a $4,500 concrete residence to be erected here by New Westminster, B. C., for E. B. Cule, of Stratford, Ont. The building will have hot air heating, electric lighting, complete plumbing, stained shingle roofing, and the specifications include mantels, dumb waiter, electrical work and art glass. Tenders will be shortly called for by the owner.

Stratford, Ont.—It has been announced by Architect W. J. Ireland, of this place, that he has awarded the following contracts on the proposed $2,600 residence to be erected here by W. Benington: W. Wobbs, carpentering; H. Jacobs, plastering; W. Ireland, plumbing; McDonald & Henry, masonry. The building will be of brick veneer with concrete and stone foundations, cut stone trimmings, stained shingle roof, hot air heating, plumbing throughout, pine interior finish, electric light, art glass.

London, Ont.—Architect W. G. Murray, London, has prepared plans for a $4,000 residence for George M. Anderson here. The specifications include cement work, cut stone, marble, brick, mantels, roof, electrical work and gas, and the interior finish will be pine grained.

Brantford, Ont.—Architect Geo. W. Hall, of this city, has prepared plans for a $2,000 brick and stone residence, M.P., to be built of stone and brick, with concrete foundations. R. Draper, here, has been awarded the contract for the building. The plumbing and heating contracts have not, as yet, been let.

Collingwood, Ont.—J. T. Pearson, of Collingwood, has been awarded the contract for erecting a $3,000 brick residence on Hurontario street, here, for W. A. Tom. Specifications call for cement work, cut stone, brick and tile, mantels and electric work. The architect is John Wilson of this city.

Collingwood, Ont.—Architect John Wilson, of this place, announces that he has prepared plans for a $3,500 residence for G. K. Mills, Collingwood. The building will be of brick construction with stone foundations, shingle roof, pine and hardwood interior finish, hot water heating, electric lighting. The specifications also include cut stone, brick, and tile mantels.

Brantford, Ont.—Architect George W. Hall, of this city, has prepared plans for a $5,000 residence for Mrs. Andrew Cloghorn, Albion street, to be constructed of stone and brick with concrete foundations. B. Landy, here, was awarded the contract for the building, the plumbing and heating to A. Taylor.

Fort William.—J. A. McLeod, of this place, will erect a $3,500 residence on Herald street. It will have concrete foundations and outside walls of concrete blocks.

Fort William.—W. A. Stewart will erect a $3,500 solid brick and stone residence on Catharine street.

Fort William.—F. & H. Stewardson will erect a $4,000 double villa on Archibald street. The building will have concrete foundations.

Fort William.—R. Wilson, of this place, will erect a $3,500 solid brick and stone residence on Catharine street.

Port Arthur, Ont.—Architect M. J. Aylesworth, of this place, has prepared plans for a $3,000 residence for Arthur Munro here. The specifications call for brick construction with concrete foundations, said foundations to be built by the owner, Arthur Munro. Tenders to be called shortly.

Port Arthur, Ont.—Plans have been completed for three apartment houses here by Architects Ellis & Conner, of Toronto, for Mr. J. G. King, at a probable cost of $3,000. The proposed building will be of brick construction with stone foundations, felt and gravel roof. It will contain hot-air heating, combination lighting and the very best plumbing. Specifications include cement work, cut stone, brick, tile, mantels, and plate interior finish. Tenders have been called for.

Wallaceburg, Ont.—Architect A. M. Piper, of Chatham, has prepared plans for George Lyddat of this place, for a $3,500 residence here. Specifications at his office call for brick work, concrete foundation, hot-air heating, electric lighting, plumbing, shingle roof and Georgia pine interior finish, and art glass windows, cut stone trimmings.

St. Thomas, Ont.—Mr. George R. Crocker has torn down the old drill hall and he will erect a number of modern dwellings on its site.

Dresden, Ont.—Architect A. M. Piper, of this place, has completed plans for a proposed $1,500 residence here for O. McVein, of brick and stone, slate roof, oak and Georgia pine interior finish, hot water heating, electric lighting, complete plumbing. The specifications include cement work, cut stone, brick, tile, mantels, dumb waiter.

Barrie, Ont.—Architects Chadwick & Beckett, of Toronto, have prepared plans for a residence for Harold Dymont, of this place, which were forwarded to him recently. The specifications include cut stone trimmings, brick work, tile, mantels, dumb waiter, refrigerator. The foundations are to be of stone with superstructure of brick with cut stone trimmings, shingle roof, and the proposed structure will be hot water heated and electrically lighted, and have modern plumbing.

Calgary.—A. L. Nunn has had plans prepared for the erection of a brick veneered residence here, by Hodgson & Bates, architects, Stephen avenue, Calgary.

Edmonton.—The Deputy Minister of Public Works, Edmonton, Alta., has had plans prepared for a terrace building, including steam heating, electric wiring and all necessary work in connection with same.

Edmonton, Alta.—Architect J. E. Wise, Edmonton, has prepared plans for a $5,000 residence for Dr. J. Hislop here. Specifications include steam heating, electric lighting, shingle roof, modern plumbing, oak and interior finish. The proposed building will be three storeys high. Cement work, brick work, tile, mantels, concrete blocks, shingle stain, ornamental columns and caps and art glass. T. Page, of this place, has been awarded the contract.

Winnipeg, Man.—Architects Wardell & Nichols have prepared plans for an $18,000 residence for J. C. Ellis, of this place. The proposed building is to be steam heated, electric lighted, to have shingle roof, and interior finish of oak and mahogany. Specifications include stone foundation, brick and stone superstructure, shingle roof, cement work, marble, tile, mantels, artificial stone, metallic bath. A. B. Anderson, of this place, has been awarded the contract.

Regina, Sask.—Architects Storey & Von Egnond, Regina, have prepared plans for eight houses for officers' quarters for Northwest Mounted Police, to have brick foundations, brick and stone superstructure, shingle roof, steam heating, electric lighting, fir interior finish. The proposed structures will be three storeys high.

Calgary, Alta.—Architects Dowler & Michie, of this place, have prepared plans for a $2,500 residence for G. E. Crooks, of this place, to have concrete foundation, frame construction, shingle roof. Specifications include hot air heating, electric lighting, sanitary plumbing, mantels and art glass.

Quebec, P. Q.—Architects Tabot & Drouin, Quebec, have prepared plans for the erection of a $6,000 cottage for Antonio Lacasse, of this place. The proposed structure will have stone foundation, pressed brick faced superstructure, metal roof. Specifications include hot water heating, electric lighting, interior finish, Selenith plaster.

Hotels

Ottawa, Ont.—The Dominion Government has approved of the plans of the Grand Trunk Railway for the proposed new hotel to be built by the railway on Major's Hill Park for the site of which they paid $100,000. The proposed structure will have a frontage of 135x120 ft. The design will be gothic. The plans were prepared by Architect B. L. Gilbert, of New York City. The park entrance will have an arch of monumental design to cost at least $20,000. The hotel will cost at least $1,500,000, seven storeys in height, will have 340 bedrooms, 100 of which will be supplied with baths, a large and small banquet hall, a ballroom, a buffet, palm room and cafe, and will be fireproof throughout. Wm. Wainwright, of the Grand Trunk, states that the proposed structure will be called the Grand Trunk Hotel. Operations will be pushed as expeditiously as possible in order to have the hotel and depot completed by 1909.

Ottawa, Ont.—Ald. James Davidson has stated that he will build a six story hotel here with a frontage of 279 feet. It is expected to be finished by May 1st next year.

Winnipeg, Man.—Architects Esde Bros. have prepared plans for a $25,500 addition to H. Rosenblatt's hotel here. The proposed addition will be of brick and stone, with concrete foundations and will be steam heated, electric lighted, parol roof, and the interior finish will be birch wood and metal. The contract, which has been let to the Carter, Hall & Aldinger Co., Limited, includes fireproofing, metallic bath, dumb waiter, sheet metal work, metal ceiling, roof and siding, and refrigerator.

Saskatoon, Sask.—Architect W. W. LaChance, of this place, has prepared plans for Jas. Flannigan, who proposes to erect a brick and stone hotel. The specifications call for cement work, cut stone, brick, tile, mantels, structural fire escapes, galvanized iron roof, electric lighting, ornamental columns and art glass.

Edmonton, Alta.—The Hotel Cecil here obtained a permit for the erection of a new wing to this hotel at a cost of $15,000. W. Stewart Campbell, of this place is architect.

Waterloo, Ont.—Architect Charles Knechtel, Berlin, has prepared plans for the rebuilding and additions to hotel for Jas. Scott here. Tenders called for. The proposed structure will be three storeys high, concrete foundations, composition roof, black ash interior finish, cementine construction, ornamental iron, metal ceiling, electric work.

Opera Houses

Berlin, Ont.—Mr. Copen, manager of the theatre, here, has made a proposition to the town that if they will raise $25,000 for a new theatre, he will add $25,000.