THE DEAD LEADER.

An Immense Concourse of People Pay Tribute to the Late Hon.
Honore Mercier.

In Montreal, on Friday last, amidst the solemn tolling of all the Roman Catholic church bells the French Canadians today buried with the remains of the late Honore Mercier their last hope of a French Canadian republic in America, which the dead leader had worked so strenuously to keep alive. The French Canadian portion of the city was attired in the deepest mourning, and the streets through which the procession passed were draped from house to house in black and orange, the papal colors.
Business was virtually suspended, and the courts and executive government offices were closed. The streets were black with them. Special excursion parties arrived from all over the province, the Dominion and the border States.
Every other man wore a special mourning badge. All the prominent Liberals, French Canadian and English, headed by the leader of the opposition in the Dominion Parliament, Hon. Wilfred Laurier, who acted as pall bearer, walked in the procession.

The order of the procession was as follows:

- A Squadron of Police.
- A Detachment of Firemen.
- Mount St. Louis Cadets.
- St. Mary's College Cadets.
- The Students.
- The Hearse.
- Chariot with Floral Offerings.
- Members of the Family.
- The Mayor and the City Council.
- The Judge.
- Federal Ministers and Senators.
- Provincial Ministers and Members of the Quebec Legislature.
- The Bar.
- The Papal Zouaves.
- Club National of Montreal and St. Hyacinthe.
- English Liberal Club.
- Club L'Estimable.
- Club Papineau.
- Club Laurier.
- Club Chretien.
- Delegations from different cities and Municipalities.
- Other Clubs and Organizations.
- The General Public.

The pall-bearers were Sir Alexander Lacoste, chief justice of the court of Queen's bench; Hon. W. Laurier, M. P., leader of the Liberal party; Hon. Joly de Lotbiniere, his one time leader in the ministry and opposition at Quebec; Hon.
F. G. Marchand, M. P.; an ex-colleague and late leader in the opposition; Mayor Deshailes, of St. Hyacinthe; Hon. Jas.
McShane, an ex-colleague; Judge Bourgers, of Three Rivers, his law partner in his early days at St. Hyacinthe; Mr.
Robert Mackay, representing the English Liberals; Mr. L. O. David, president of the National association of St. Jean-Baptiste; Hon. Pierre Garneau, an ex-colleague, for the Liberals and Nationals of the district of Quebec.

The hearse was drawn by six horses and preceded by an immense mourning car fairly weighed down with floral offerings. The one that carried by the societies who offered them. One of the most notable delegations, was that of the scattered and veteran Papal Zouaves, headed by their tattered colors. The Church of the Gesu was heavily draped and the services of an imposing nature, nothing having been left undone by the Jesuit fathers to add solemnity to the occasion.

The remains rested on a catafalque at the sanctuary railings. The remains were received by Rev. Abbe Gravel, V. G., of Beloeil, who performed the levee du corps, assisted by Rev. Father Gar-neau. The requiem service was chanted by the Rev. Father Renaud, superior of the Society of Jesus, assisted by Rev.
Father Hudon, rector of St. Mary's College, and Rev. Father Garneau, chaplain of the 65th. the French-Canadian battalion.

GRIEF IS THEIRS AGAIN.

St. Mary's Academy on Notre Dame Street Was Another Victim of Death—Sister Mary Agapit Passes Away.

On last Sunday evening five minutes before eight o'clock Rev. Sister Mary Agapit passed away from this life, at the Academy on Notre Dame Street, east.
She had been a victim of asthma for six years past, and that disease finally developed into consumption. About a week ago she yielded to the illness and sank rapidly under it. Throughout the whole of Sunday it was known by those around her that her end was drawing near.
Her death was announced to the Very Rev. Father Langevin, O. M. I., D. D. visited the convent early in the day and administered to Rev. Sister Mary Agapit the last rites of the church.
About 7.30 on Sunday evening a telephone message was sent from the convent to St. Mary's presbytery telling that the death was at hand, but before any of the rev. clergymen could reach the academy Sister Agapit passed away. She was conscious to the last and without any apparent pain she crossed the threshold to eternity, closing her eyes as if in happy sleep. Her end was a most happy one—a just retribution from the Almighty for her years of work.

This is the second death in St. Mary's academy within a month, and the fourth in the religious communities of Winnipeg and St. Boniface in a like period. A month ago Rev. Sister Mary Zephyrin died, and very strange is it that Rev.
Sister Agapit remarked at that time that she herself would follow within a month. Her prediction was fulfilled.
Rev. Sister Agapit made her vows as a lay Sister of the Order of Jesus and Mary in the year 1878 at Hochelaga. She came to Winnipeg that same year and has been here since. Her name in the world was Miss Savoie, and her place of birth Three Rivers, Quebec. She was 35 years old. The funeral obsequies took place this morning at 9.30 in the Cathedral at St. Boniface. R. J. P.

APOSTOLIC WORKS.

The New Catholic Indian Bureau at Washington.

We are glad to hear that the Catholic Indian Bureau, Washington, D. C., has been reorganized. It was founded twenty years ago by Archbishop Bayley of Baltimore, at the request of Bishops having Indian missions within their dioceses or vicariates. Its object was to represent the interests of the Catholic Indians with the Government, and to watch over, further and guard these interests.

Its existence became necessary by General Grant's so-called "peace policy" in dealing with the Indians. He said in a message which he sent to Congress: "Indian agencies, being civil officers, I determine to give all agencies to such religious denominations as shall heretofore established missions among the Indians, and, perhaps, to some other denominations who would undertake to work on the same terms." So well did he carry out the latter clause that, out of thirty-eight agencies asked for by Catholics as having missions there established and maintained by the Catholic church, only eight were given, and all the other agencies, then sixty-four in number, were placed in the charge of non-Catholics. This meant that fully 80,000 Catholic Indians were turned over to Protestant influences and Catholic priests were forbidden to hold any farther services at the reservation on which these Indians resided. This flagrant injustice called for the establishment of a bureau at Washington. Its aims were: First, to direct the administration of such agencies as were especially assigned to the care of Catholics; secondly, to secure if possible, the remainder of the agencies to which Catholics were plainly entitled under the terms of President Grant's peace policy; thirdly, to protect the religious faith and material interest of all Catholic Indians, and, lastly, to secure the establishment of suitable schools for the Indian boys and girls, to procure for the Indians moral and religious teachers, with adequate compensation for their services; to develop a general interest in Indian education, and to secure means with which to erect school buildings in all cases possible. The work accomplished by the Bureau has been of incalculable value for the public education of the Indians. We can estimate what it has done by the fact that it has the supervision of all the contracts for Government aid in caring for nearly 4,000 children in the Catholic Indian schools, situated in some twenty different dioceses. We wish the Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions under its new organization great success in its most praiseworthy labors for the true civilization of the Indians.

NEALE'S SENTENCE.

The Defaulting Customs Collector in the City On the Way to Prison.

Percy R. Neale, sentenced to seven years at Stony Mountain penitentiary, was brought into the city on Friday from Regina by Sgt. Green, of the N. W. M. P.
The couple stopped at the Leland hotel all night and left for the Mountain at noon Saturday. At Regina in appearing before Judge Richardson, after the charges had been read, Neale responded in clear tones the words "Guilty, my Lord." The judge then asked the crown prosecutor if he had any remarks to make. Mr. Secord asked the sentence of the court upon the prisoner, but in justice to the prisoner called attention to the fact that restitution had been made of a large portion of the moneys.
Neale being asked if he had anything to say asked that His Lordship would extend leniency to him, considering his twenty years of otherwise faithful service to the government. He stated that the offences were committed under unusual influences, and mentioned that he had made all the restitution in his power and expressed his sorrow for the offence. In answer to enquiry the judge was informed that $4,760 has been restored.

The judge said the task he had was an unpleasant one, and that notwithstanding the long service of the prisoner to the government, and the restitution of the moneys, an example must be made of the case. The maximum sentence was fourteen years. His Lordship hoped that the prisoner being yet a young man, might, after his imprisonment, yet live to retrieve the character which he had recently lost. The prisoner was then sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

THE DECEMBER MESSENGER.

The December Messenger of the League of the Sacred Heart will be a Jubilee number. The illustrated pieces will be chapters in the history of the Apostleship, particularly in Vals, its birthplace, in Toulouse, the present home of the Director General, and in Woodstock, Md., for more than fifteen years the seat of the Central Direction in the United States. A beautiful frontispiece of St.
Francis Xavier, the great patron and model of the work, and reproductions of rare photographs of the great statue of Notre Dame de France, in Vals, and of the Gesu church, in Toulouse, will make the number most attractive. The "Reader" will treat of League literature, and the other department pages will be full of interesting notes and news about the doings and prospects of our League of Prayer and of devotion to the Sacred Heart. The story, a new Christmas story, by Rev. Francis J. Finn, will be beautifully illustrated, and the Director's Review will give a complete summary of the work done during the past year.
Promoters should circulate at least one copy of the December Messenger among their Associates.

LEAGUE OF THE SACRED HEART.

Thursday last was the fifth anniversary of the organization of the League in this city, and during that period the good which has been accomplished through its influence can only be realized by the many favors which have been obtained by the associates.

Mrs. E. F. Radiger, who has been president since the organization in this city, and through whose untiring efforts much of the success of the league is due, being about to leave the city, her resignation was received with much regret.
The election to fill the vacancy made vacant took place and resulted in Mrs.
J. J. Egan being elected president; Mrs.
E. Cass, 1st vice-president; Mrs. A. H.
Kennedy, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Jos.
Carey, treasurer; Miss B. M. Brown, J. secretary.

The following were chosen members of the Council of the League: Mesdames Monchamp, Tomlinson, Gauthier, Conway, Cauchon, Allman, Miller, Kilgour, Golden, P. Egan, Miss Powers, Miss Coyle.

The leaflet, published monthly, should be read by all associates. Rev. Father McCarthy, will always be glad to give any information to intending associates.

A church in Vermont recently advertised for a minister, and, besides stip-ulating that he should be young, married and interested in social and church club work, insisted that he must be a Republican.

KIND WORDS OF PRAISE.

What the Most Rev. Archbishop Walsh, Toronto, says of Mr. Blake.

It affords us much pleasure in producing the following extract taken from the Home Rule Bulletin, published at New York, it says:
The Most Rev. John Walsh, Archbishop of Toronto, recently directed that a collection for the purposes represented by Mr. Blake be taken up in all the churches of the archdiocese on Quinquagesima Sunday. In the circular to the clergy announcing this collection, he says of Ireland's appeal and of the champion Canada has given her:
"This appeal is not only sanctioned, but is urged as a matter of the last importance by the Hon. Edward Blake, who, with all the earnestness, zeal, and enthusiasm of a knight of old, has devoted his time and talents to the cause of Home Rule in Ireland.
"The sacrifices of time and money, and of personal ease and comfort made by this distinguished gentleman for the liberty, prosperity and happiness of Ireland are certainly stimulating and encouraging, and loudly call, not alone for our admiration, but primarily aid and specially for our imitation." In view of the hard times at home, says the Archbishop further on, the appeal would be withheld, but that Ireland's necessities are so pressing.
"For us to fail now in reaching out a strong helping hand to the sacred cause of Irish self-government and rightful liberty would be to throw up our arms on the eve of victory, to render useless the sacrifices and struggles of the past, to abandon poor Ireland to the want, misery, and suffering that have made her the mater dolorosa of the nations, and to condemn her to the shame of failure and to the agony of despair."

even though he may not have been entirely accountable for those crimes.
The pity of it is that the Czar's death promises no better things for the Russian Catholics and Jews, but rather portends harsher treatment and direr persecutions.

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.

You may always know when your liver is out of order, or when you are what is called bilious: by any of the following symptoms: Pain in the side and back, dizziness, dull headache, a bad taste in the mouth in the morning, sallow colored complexion, yellowish tint in the eyes, costiveness or diarrhoea, of slimy dark color, low spirit, and dismal forebodings. It is acknowledged by all physicians and others, who have seen their action, that Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are a perfect cure for all bilious affections. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills are sold by all medicine dealers.

AN ESSEX COUNTY MIRACLE.

How An Old Lady Was Released From Suffering.

Strong Testimony of a Reliable Witness Added to the Already Long Chain of Evidence—Why Suffer When the Means of Cure Are at Hand?

From the Leamington Post.
Mrs. Mary Olmstead, a highly respected and well known lady residing south of the village of Wheatley, eight miles from Leamington, has been the subject of an experience that has created not a little wonder, and has excited so much comment in the vicinity of the lady's home that the Post believes it will prove of general interest.

Proceeding to the handsome farm residence, we were ushered into a room where sat the genial old lady. Upon enquiry she informed us that she was in her eightieth year, and for one of her years she is the picture of health. She expressed her readiness to make public the particulars of her suffering and cure, stating that while she did not care to figure prominently in the newspapers yet if her testimony would relieve others suffering as she had done, she would forego any scruples in the matter. She then related the story of her case as follows: "About six years ago I was stricken with sciatica rheumatism, which first made its appearance in my left knee, but gradually took possession of all my limbs. Within three months after its first appearance I was unable to leave my bed, and day, and night suffered the most excruciating pain. My limbs were swollen to more than twice their natural size, and drawn out of all natural shape. My feet were also badly swollen, and my right arm was in the shape of a semicircle. For three long years I suffered in this manner, being unable to put a foot to the floor, the only way I could move around was by being wheeled in a chair. My appetite gradually left me until I had no desire or relish for food of any kind, and I got very thin and weak. During all this time I kept doctoring with the medical practitioners of the neighborhood, and swallowed gallons of medicine which cost my husband much money, but I am unable to say that I received any benefit from this medicine. My agony kept increasing and my system growing weaker, till many times death would have been a welcome relief to my suffering. After reading in the newspapers about the many cures effected by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I decided to try them. My case was a stubborn one, and it was not until I had taken half a dozen boxes of the pills that I began to feel an improvement. I continued taking the pills, however, and never had a relapse, and to-day I am as hearty and healthy as I was before the rheumatism came on. I am now able to knit and sew as fast as any young person while for years my fingers were as stiff as needles. I owe my recovery entirely to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and will always have a good word to say for them."
