

One by One.

"We have decided to use your Analytical Latin Method in our High School this year."
E. F. WARNER, Supt., Bellevue, Ohio.

One by one the schools in the United States are adopting the DeBrisay Analytical Latin Method. When American schools send to Canada for text-books there must be some pretty good reason for so doing. It is certainly not due to "pull" on our part. To what, then, is it due? Some of the educationists down by the sea would do well to investigate the matter. Our free circular throws some light on the question. We teach by mail Latin, French, Spanish and German. Full course, $10. Part I Latin or French, 25cts. Part I Spanish or German, $1.00. "First Step in French," 50cts.
