

4. That Working Groups I and II will begin their meetings from the second week;
5. That Working Group III will begin its work from the first week to discuss the Earth Charter/Rio de Janeiro Declaration on Environment and Development and the question of institutions;
6. That the secretariat will distribute documentation in all official languages six weeks before the opening of the session;
7. That delegates shall endeavour to submit position papers before the session begins;
8. That during the session, the only documentation processed will be formal proposals by delegations presented in the customary form and revisions of texts for negotiations. A cut-off date early in the session shall be established for the submission of all draft proposals under all items;
9. To endeavour to adhere strictly to the programme of work for its fourth session, once it has been adopted;
10. To request the General Assembly to approve the dates of 2 March to 3 April 1992 in New York for its fourth session;
11. To request the General Assembly to allow it to hold up to six meetings a day. As a general rule, it will hold two meetings in the mornings, and two meetings in the afternoons, from Monday to Friday, and two meetings on Saturday mornings.