

CHAPTER I

1776

The first of July 1776 was a day of great importance to the American people. It was on this day that the Continental Congress declared the United States to be a free and independent nation, no longer bound to the British Crown.

The Declaration of Independence was a bold statement of the American people's desire for self-government. It was a document that would shape the future of the United States and inspire other nations to seek freedom.
