

May 15, 2002

Dear _____

The Canadian and African Business Women's Alliance (CAABWA) is a non-profit national organization focusing on strengthening existing business and trade linkages between Canada and African countries, as well as exploring new avenues of trade and investment for women entrepreneurs.

CAABWA is conducting research on the existing Canada's trade, investment and development policies towards Africa and on their impact women. This research is intended for the formulation of a paper for contribution to the discussions at the upcoming G8 Summit, scheduled to take place at Kananaskis, Alberta on June 26-27, 2002.

We are requesting your participation in the survey. The attached questionnaire that will allow us to obtain the views of various parties with regards to the issues surrounding the G8 Summit.

CAABWA's paper will recognize the contributions of individuals that will participate in this survey. We would appreciate receiving your responses by 12:00 noon, Monday, March 12, 2002.

We thank you in advance for your contribution in completing this survey and apologize for the limited time period that is required. For any questions and clarifications, please contact Cheryl Okunow, Project Assistant, at (905) 365-8300, ext. 261. Completed questionnaires can be faxed to (905) 365-8300 or emailed to caabwa@comcast.ca.

Yours sincerely,

Deborah Tunali
Chair

APPENDIX 4:
Survey Questionnaire to Individuals
