

Act, the consent of the farmer for the Minister to pursue any action that the farmer may have in law against any person whose act or omission resulted in or contributed to the presence of the pesticide residue in or upon an agricultural product.

(2) Where the Minister receives, as the result of any action taken by him pursuant to subsection (1), an amount of any judgment for damages in excess of the amount paid or to be paid to the farmer in compensation, he shall reimburse the farmer to the extent of such excess.

(3) The Minister shall in paying compensation take into account any amounts realized by the farmer in any action in law the farmer may have pursued against any person whose act or omission resulted in or contributed to the presence of the pesticide residue in or upon the agricultural product."

A Message was received from the Senate informing this House that the Senate had passed Bill C-157, An Act to regulate products used for the control of pests and the organic functions of plants and animals, with the following amendment:

Page 9: Renumber clauses 13 and 14 as clauses 14 and 15 and immediately after clause 12 insert the following heading and clause:

"APPEAL PROCEDURE

13. The provisions of section 9 of the Hazardous Products Act apply mutatis mutandis in respect of any order made under this Act that directly affects the rights or interests of any person, as if that section were incorporated in this Act and as if the words, "Control Products Board of Review" were substituted for the words "Hazardous Products Board of Review" in subsections (1) and (2) of that section."

Debate was resumed on the motion of Mr. Stanfield, seconded by Mr. Thompson (Red Deer),—That this House regrets that the Government has not provided for the development and retention of manpower resources in Canada and, in particular, of student manpower resources.

And on the motion of Mr. Broadbent, seconded by Mrs. MacInnis, in amendment thereto,—That the motion be amended by changing the period at the end thereof to a comma, and by adding immediately thereafter the following words:

"because of its reliance on the unplanned private sector and its failure to emphasize the role of the public sector in promoting the full utilization of all our manpower resources."

And debate continuing; at 9.45 o'clock p.m., Mr. Speaker interrupted the debate pursuant to Standing Order 58(9);

And the question being put on the said proposed amendment, it was negatived on the following division:
