

Speaker and Deputy Speaker, rulings and statements—Cont.Privilege—Cont.*Judge intimidating member by—Cont.

use power of privilege, committee's prior order of reference would permit examination of matter, 6183-5

Language

"Bunk", member indicating unparliamentary expression used instead of, denial, no substantive motion, matter disposed of with denial, 6403-4

"Deliberately lied", member asked to withdraw remark, refusal, Chair naming member, 5455-7

"Dishonest", deferring decision, 4746, remark not re substance of debate but personal reflection, jeopardizing decorum of House, withdrawn, 4781-2

"Ethics of an alley cat", member may withdraw remark after examining record, 4728, remark not re substance of debate but personal reflection, jeopardizing decorum of House, withdrawn, 4781-2

"Lies and deceptions of Conservatives", determining whether language reflecting on members, 6127-9, not intended to reflect upon, matter not to be pursued, 6151-4

Liberal Party, biennial national convention use of parliament buildings, etc., deferring decision, 2663-4, 2744, application for use withdrawn, 2833-4

Member possessing secret security documents, government demanding return, right to consult solicitor, suggestion Chair keep documents in interim, 3399-400, not Chair's decision if security offences committed, member's premises subject to search only with permission of Chair, Chair will consult House leaders, matter still hypothetical as no search warrant issued, motion not proposed, 3402-4, matter to stand in abeyance, member will not use documents, will consult solicitor, 3424, member's denial of document possession disposes of matter, 3471

Member wasting time of House, accusation, not a question of, 5599

Member's allegation that other members and ministers have speculated against dollar and ministers have broken oath of secrecy, M. to refer to Privileges and Elections Committee, 5635, allegation withdrawn, matter is closed, 5687

Members, franking privileges, alleged abuse, not within authority of Chair to intervene in mail, sanction not of procedural nature but of propriety, not a question of, 4692

Members' offices, alleged bugging

Investigation, extending to constituency offices, deferring decision, 517, confined to parliament buildings, 602

Investigation, progress, Ottawa police force assisting, etc., 432, 602-3, 607, 695, 749-51, consultants' and Bell Canada reports, agree possibility of wiretapping, Clark telephone, 874-5, charges laid by Ottawa police force, 4054-5

Prime minister's allegations opposition members bugging own offices, deferring decision, 604-5, 685, 694, 785, citing precedents, expression of statement rather than opinion that illegality occurred, remarks offensive, member asked to withdraw or clarify, 817-9

Member's remarks

Erroneous re government ordering new Treu trial, disagreement rather than question of, 6403

Misquoted in motion, no mention of sources, remark must be withdrawn if not substantiated, withdrawn, 5276

Misquoted, remarks ruled in order, 4119

Outside House, lawsuit filed against, 4973, member claiming obstructed in performing duties, citing precedents of extension of proceedings, Chair determining extent of member's immunity, whether House should take steps to interfere with lawsuit or could interfere even if matter deemed privileged, deferring decision, 5073, member not obstructed, precedents not clear, motion not substantive, not a question of, 5411

Speaker and Deputy Speaker, rulings and statements—Cont.Privilege—Cont.*Member's remarks—Cont.*Outside House, lawsuit filed against—Cont.

Member's right to seek re-nomination interfered with, not an established right, decision deferred, 4031

Members' rights and obligations re conflict of interest matters, effecting decorum, requesting introduction of legislation, M. to refer to Privileges and Elections Committee, matter has been discussed, introduction of legislation forthcoming, matter not to be pursued, 5719

Members' rights breached by RCMP surveillance, role of Chair, etc., deferring decision, 3349, minister's denial of surveillance accepted, allegation of surveillance and minister's denial referring to privileges and elections committee, deferring decision, 3575-6, including minister's denial in motion contrary to precedents, confidentiality of sources and communications not an established right, member may rephrase motion, 3607-9, motion rephrased, 3832, no precedents, surveillance in contempt of House, House alone competent to decide, Chair doubtful on question, putting motion to House, 3975-9, agreement on short delay, 3977-9, motion put, 3988-9

Members' rights re applicability of Official Secrets Act, not founded on a particular case, referring to rights and immunities committee, deferring decision, 3472-5, dependent on reconstituting committee and format of examination, 3520, examination limited to general study, not necessary to pursue question further, 3570

Member's statement erroneous, question previously dealt with, matter not to be pursued, 4746

Minister deliberately misleading the House, member's language "deliberately misleading" unparliamentary, must be withdrawn; procedural aspect of question, deferring decision, 3196-9, allegation that House misled intentionally not a question of, may be raised in proper substantive motion, matter open for further action, 3293-5

Minister imputing member adverse to interests of francophone Canadians, 6860-1, imputing motives not in order, member requested to withdraw remarks, withdrawn, 6904-6, minister substantiating remarks, notice necessary to raise matter previously discussed, 6915

Minister imputing member improperly profited from banking system, personal reflection not relating to subject matter, minister's withdrawal disposes of matter, 6650-1

Minister misinterpreting member's remarks, disagreement, not a question of, 5148-9

Minister misleading House

Allegation not question of, may be raised in a proper substantive motion, matter open for further action, 5113

Destruction of RCMP documents, may be raised after examination of transcript and minister's re-examination of matter, 4887

Disagreement in interpretation, not a question of, 5412, 5687-8, 6154, 6187-8, 6526

Minister stating member misled House, disagreement, not a question of, 6964

Minister violating precepts of ministerial responsibility re RCMP alleged illegalities, House neglecting other problems, not a question of, 821-3