Odell Divorce Case to defer case.—See "Senate dealing with case pending before Courts" (below), 220-30.

Order, precedence of.—Pointed out by Mr. Miller that it was promised that consideration of the report from certain members of the Divorce Com. should be the first Order of the Day instead of fifth item, 354; Mr. Speaker, it was understood that this should be the first item and it will be called first, 354.

Order, ques. of, immediate consideration of report.—Mr. Power rises to point of order on M. (Mr. Kirchhoffer) for immediate consideration of report of Divorce Com. resigning, 270. Messrs. Kaulbach and Miller also object, 270. M. (Mr. Kirchhoffer) report be taken into consideration on Monday next, 270.

Papers, bringing down of.—On M. (Mr. Landry) for certain documents in Baie Des Chaleur scandal case, Mr. Power rises to question of order; not the place to ask for these papers, should apply to Quebec legislature, 296; Mr. Angers, point of order not well taken, know some of the documents were duly forwarded to the Governor General, govt. no objection to bring papers before House, 296. M. agreed to, 296.

Parliament, late summoning of.—See General Index.

—reflection on action of.—Mr. Angers stated that when the Senate last year introduced an Amt. to B. from H. of C. Senate was not supplied with necessary information. Mr. Power thought it was a reflection on the action of Parliament and was very unparliamentary, 570.

Prejudicing case before Courts.—See "Odell Divorce Case" (above).

Printing, delays in, etc.—See "Printing" in general index to subjects.

Privilege, Questions.—See "newspaper letter" (above).

Proceedings, continuation next year where terminated this year.—Mr. Clemow intended to m. an Amt. (Odell Divorce Case) that proceedings should be taken up next session where left off this. Mr. Miller stated could not be done without Act of Parliament. Mr. Clemow did not press matter, 279.

Questions, put off hand.—Mr. McKay objected to questions being put and answered off-hand; thought government should have notice of them. Mr. Masson said the on y persons who have the right to complain are the members of the govt. themselves. Sir Mackenzie Bowell, no objection to answer questions, 677-8.

Reports, reading of, in debate.—Sir Mackenzie Bowell thought it a dangerous practice to simply hand reports to reporters, if the report is to be included in the Debates it must be read, 587.

Rules, suspension of.—M. (Mr. Power) for suspension of rules as regards B. intituled "An Act to incorporate the Dominion Atlantic Ry. Co.", 376. M. agreed to, 376.

Rules, suspension of.—Mr. Power m. that 41st rule of Senate be suspended as regards Eastern Assurance Society's B. and gave explanation, 331. M. agreed to, 331.

Order and Procedure—Concluded.

Ruling of the Chair, no necessity for. On Mr. McKay pointing out that it is not competent for a Com. to resign without cause, except in certain cases which are specified, Mr. Kirchhoffer drops resolution for adoption of report from certain members of Divorce Com., 354; Mr. McKay asks for ruling of Chair, 355; Mr. Angers, no necessity for ruling as Mr. Kirchhoffer has withdrawn his document, 355.
