10. The FRIENDLY ISLANDS comprise the Navigator's, Tonga, Habaii, and Feejee Islands; the inhabitants of the latter are the most ferocious and savage of any in Polynesia; they are large and muscular, and of very dark complexions. In the Tonga and Habaii islands, upwards of 2,000 children are instructed in the schools, and the church numbers upward of 1,100 native members.

11. PITCAIRN'S ISLAND is settled by the descendants of the mutineers of the ship Bounty: the inhabitants are an amiable, religious, and moral people, and speak the English language. The CENTRAL ARCHIPELAGO, and the Archipelagoes of MAGELLAN and ANSSON, are composed of a number of small islands: they are but little known, and are seldom visited.

The BONIN ISLANDS are settled by a colony comprising a few American and English sailors, who took wives with them from the Sandwich islands.
