LOOK HERE, STARI

Last winter The World reporterial staff had a hockey team. The Star gang claimed to have one, had they were alraid to play the Hichmond street out-fit. The Star new has a hunch that they can play ball We doubt it. Why not a little game with The World? Am time will suit us. Just name the day. This gees as a challenge. Remember, the players are selected from the editorial floor,

We might talk and talk about the merits of our summer suits, but the easiest way to convince you is to sell you one.

You'll find so much satisfaction in the quality, fit and general excellence, that it will be unnecessary for us to tell you that they are the best garments we ever sold for the prices, which range from $10 to $25.

LACROSSE GOSSIP

The big sporting attraction on Satur

The big sporting attraction on Saturday will be the Big Four lacrosse match at the Island Stadium between Torontos and Tecumsehs. The intense rivalry that exists between these teams and the sensational outcome of the last match at the Beach, which went 40 minutes overtime and resulted in a Toronto victory, makes the coming match one of the most interesting of the season. It also has a direct bearing on the championship situation.

Fred Rowntree has purchased 250 seats for distribution among the farmers of Weston and vicinity. The Weston Band will also be in attendance.

The Brantford Lacrosse Club wish to arrange exhibition games for their vacant dates this season, and all teams desirous of doing so are asked to write the secretary, Ed. Slattery.

A town league has been organized in Prescott. They also have a senior team in the O.A.L.A.

Riverdales, junior city champions, would like to arrange a game of lacrosse for the list of July with any out of town junior or juvenile team. Address W. Fergusson. Winchester and Sumach Sts.

F. C. Waghorne will handle the Intermediate O.A.L.A. game today, Collingwood at Thornbury.

Lansdownes and Young Torontos play a Senior O.A.L.A. game Saturday at the island prior to the pro. game.

KNOX BEAT MACDONALD

Orillia Professional Secured the American Championship

Walter Knox of Orillia successfully defended his title of Canadian professional champion and also secured a new and wider title, that of champion of America, when he defeated John A. MacDonald of Boston, the American champion, in an all-round athletic meet. Knox simply outclassed his opponent and won by the handsome majority of 1207 points. Of the ten events contested MacDonald was only able to win three of them, the running high jump, 56-lb. weight and the hammer throw. No records were broken and, altho some of the results were far from being good, still Knox would certainly have made better trials if he had been pushed. Longboat and Wood ran a mile in 4.35 2-5, which the Indian won by about a yard, after a terrific sprint. He seems to be going at top speed again and should just about win that match race on Saturday night from Shrubb. The results were as follows:
