lake is likely to result in a law suit.

G. H. Watson K. C. has secured an interim injunction from Justice Hodgins to prevent the builders of the dam checking the flow of the river until the case has been threshed out in the case has been thres off for thirty days to flood the lake to a depth of from ten to eleven feet. They also claim that the flow of the fiver below the dam will be decreased by evaporation and by absorption of water in the bed of the lake. The property on which the proposed atificial lake is situated is right oposite Mr. Watson's place, and formely belonged to Dr. Langstaff. W. H. Jackson bought the property with the intention of forming the lake which could be used for pleasure purposes and possibly utilized as a water supply by residents in the neighborhood.

The case is a complicated by the fact that there was a dam in the same place thirty years ago, which was swept away, and altho an attempt was made to reconstruct it ten years later twas never completed.

The Sunderland football the su made to reconstruct it fen years later it was never completed.

The fact that the bed of the proposed lake is very sandy soil would, the engineers claim, result in so much absorption of water as to materially decrease the flow of the river below the BRAMPTON TRUSTEE.

The new hall which was being erected by the niembers of the ratepayers' association will likely be completed by a contractor, as the pastor of North Earlscourt Church has requested the use of the building for church work and is willing to advance six months' rent towards the completion of the building. This offer has been approved by the executive of the association, and it is expected that the hall will be ready for occupation in three weeks.

Ward Seven.

Alexander Gilmore 389 Weston road was arrested by Acting Detective Croome last night on a charge of theft from the G. T. R. premises in ward seven. Gilmore was a trucker in the employ of the company and when his rooms were searched by the detectives they found about $50 worth of gcods. such as soap, perfume, clothing, etc. The company had been receiving complaints from merchants for some days past of frequent shortage in their shipments, and Detective Croome was put in charge of the investigation.

In 1911, Mr. Watson purchased 156 acres and a residence on the east side of Yonge street, which is traversed by the Don river, and the stream in his opinion adds considerably to the atractiveness of the property. According to the engineers, who have been consulted, the flow of the river will be cut of for thirty days to flood the lake to a depth of from ten to eleven feet. They also claim that the flow of the fiver below the dam will be decreased by evaporation and by absorption of water in the bed of the lake.

Foreman Exonerated at Investigation—Timber Supports in Tunnel Too Light.

At an investigation conducted last night into the accident in the tunnel being constructed by the Quigley Contracting Company at Lambton road when three men were injured by the caving in of the tunnel, the foreman of the work. T. Clayton, was exonerated from all blame. The accident was shown to have been caused by the movement of the quicksand thru which the tunnel was being driven and by the lightness of the timbers used to support the roof and sides of the tunnel.
