

CONTENTS.

CHAPTER I.

	PAGE
Embarkation from Liverpool.—Americans on board.—Their opinions and peculiarities.—Comparison of the two lines of steamers, English and American.—Coast about Cape Breton.—Reach Halifax.—Description of the city.—Pino forest.—Houses.—Electric telegraph wires.—American newspapers circulating.—The Cathedral and fighting monuments.—Citizens balloting.—Halifax a poor place.—Drunkenness complained of there.—The soil barren, and the timber stunted.—Set off for Truro.—Pass the flagship.—Lake Charles.—The Canal Company.—Yankee coachman.—Forest.—Wigwams of Indians.—Reach Truro.—Sheep in the fields at night.—Cumberland Mountains.—Sarsaparilla Wine.—Amherst.—Manure.—Cheese.—Road-side inns.—South Joggins Coal Mine.—Account of the Company who work it.—Reflections thereupon.—Remarks of the provincial press	1

CHAPTER II.

Set off for Sackville.—Dirty steamer.—Resources of Nova Scotia.—Despatch concerning.—Comparison with the United States.—Reach St. John's.—Description.—Opinions there.—Blending of this country and the neighbouring States.—Remarks of inhabitants.—New Brunswick land.—Mostly
