

large branch of legislature by people essential, 33; on elections to Senate, 35; on definition of powers of national legislature, 36; considers election of one branch of legislature by the people necessary, 64; favors small Senate, 70; opposes election of Senate by State legislatures, 73; seconds motion to elect members of first branch every three years, 91; moves legislature fix compensation for members, 92; passed, 93; approves seven years as Senate term, 95; opposes annual elections for first branch of legislature, 145; favors national compensation of legislature, 147; wants compensation of legislature fixed in constitution, 148; moves ineligibility of members of first branch of legislature during term and for one year, 152; opposes absolute ineligibility of members of legislature to offices, 153; proposes rule of voting in Senate, 164; seconds motion to consider representation in Senate, 164; explains object of Senate, 167; opposes compensation of Senators by States, 172; objects to equal vote of States in legislature, 177; contends for proportional representation in Senate, 193; insists on proportional representation in Senate, 198; opposes commitment of question of representation in Senate, 205; insists that representation of States be considered, 221; proposes numbers as basis of representation in first branch of legislature and wealth for Senate, 225; on committee on representation, 226; moves increase in representation, 229; favors fixing standard of representation, 236; favors Pinckney's proposition for Senate, 254; insists on proportional representation, 256; favors continuance of Congress, 280; would exclude debtors from legislature, 327; suggests annual meeting of legislature, 348; wishes legislature to meet in May, 350; favors inhabitants for members of legislature, 356; opposes seven years' residence in State for members of legislature, 356; objects to rule of representation, 359; moves to limit representation, 359; moves vacancies in Senate be filled by legislatures or executives, 364; thinks legislature can fix question of citizenship for Senate, 367;

moves first branch of legislature name time of meeting, 371; thinks legislature should regulate elections, 371; thinks qualifications for legislature should be fixed, 374, 375; moves legislature compel attendance, 378; moves expulsion of members of legislature, 378; on journals of legislature, 380; insists on compensation of members of legislature by nation, 401; moves power of legislature to declare war, 418; representation only temporary, 437; proposes two-thirds of Senate for quorum, 534; seconds motion for reconsideration of number of representatives, 538; doubts if legislature should judge privileges of members, 511; thinks Congress can propose amendments, 574; moves revision of acts by executive and judiciary, 56, 405; favors appointment of judiciary by Senate, 57; favors inferior tribunals in national judiciary, 60; moves legislature have power to institute inferior tribunals, 61; favors association of judiciary with executive in revision of laws, 67, 295, 298; moves that judges of national judiciary be appointed by Senate, 97; agreed to, 97; moves that jurisdiction of national judiciary should extend to cases involving revenue and impeachment, 97; agreed to, 97; suggests appointment of judges by executive and Senate, 276; moves appointment of judges by executive with two-thirds of Senate, 277; favors appointment of judges by executive with consent of Senate, 301, 302; thinks salaries of judges should not be increased, 277, 474; doubts if jurisdiction of judiciary should extend to cases under constitution, 475; moves for term "judicial power," 475; favors qualified negative of executive on laws, 53; favors negative on State laws by legislature, 75, 78, 266, 478, 558; favors qualification mutual negative of both branches of legislature, 347; moves negative extend to resolutions, 408; favors negative on State laws, 456; favors three-fourths vote to set aside President's negative, 556; defends taxation by representation, 247; favors tax on exports, 410, 440; proposes taxation of exports by two-thirds vote, 441; insists on power of legislature to tax