For Field Captain

And Paid President

CORNWALL, Jan. 18.—(Special.)—The Cornwall Lacrosse Club executive held a special meeting last night to discuss the proposed changes in the rules which will come up at the special N. L. U. meeting in Montreal on Saturday. President J. E. MacPhee and Past President Wm. Fitzgibbon were appointed delegates to the meeting.

Warsity athletes will be pretty busy for the remainder of the week. In addition to the Jennings Cup hockey games, which are played nearly every afternoon and evening, there will be on Friday afternoon, at 4.30, at the gymnasium, a preliminary basketball game between Arts and S.P.S. At 5 p.m. the Sentor Varsity basketball team will pey means the championship. They may be handicapped somewhat by the absence of Charlie Gage, who has an injured arm, received in the last game, at Queens. In the event of his not being able to playing the team will be: Dixon and Ward, defence: Mel Brock, centre: Davis and Boddy, forwards. This game should be a dandy, and undoubtedly a large number of students will be on hand to cheer for Varsity.

while not in love with the idea, Cornwall is wiling to give the paid president a trial. The local delegates will also vote for the restoration of field captains, as it is believed this would liven up the game. No player can play his best and at the same time carry the worry and care of coaching and directing the rest of the team. With the foregoing exceptions, Messrs. MacPhee and Fitzgibbon will have a free hand.

It is a little early to talk lacrosse just yet, but some of the local fans never let up, even when the mercury is twenty below. They figure out that the Colts should be reckoned as two-year-olds next summer, and should be fast enough even to win one game in Toronto. It must be remembered that, while Toronto grounds are bad medicine for Cornwall, the Factory Town has won more games in the Queen City in the past ten years than the two Toronto clubs have in Cornwall.

WEST END ATHLETICS

Two Events Decided at Weekly The West End seniors held another of their popular weekly handicaps last night, when two events were down for decision. J. Kitchen, one of the big handicap men, took the 12-pound shot-put, and Coulter won the sixty-yard potato race. All the events were keenly contested, and the boys are showing great interest in these meets.
