Gentlemen of Toronto

We are Holding for the Next Two Days Another Sale Extraordinary

MEN'S BOOTS

All told—1,851 pairs in this purchase of Men's High-Grade Winter-Weight Boots. You may be absolutely certain of the quality, or they would not be here. Made by shoemakers famed for their hand-built work—tan and black heavy waterproofed calf—some of them calf-lined—some of them bellows-tongued—some of them double soles to the heels. The greatest winter-weather-goods chances that a man could buy anywhere or any time. And with the lot some very fine and fashionable lines in patent leathers, and gunmetal calf, and vici kid. All Goodyear welted soles—all styles—high and low heels. $7, $6.50, and $6 would be the regular selling prices—but we crowd them all into one big clearing lot at a very popular figure.....

Varsity's Big Balance.

The current issue of Varsity gives the football financial statement for the year, in the senior, intermediate, junior and Mulock Cup games at the new stadium. The approximate attendance was 40,000. This report shows a balance in the bank of $14,574.37, which is $10,776.86 above the net profit of last year. The receipts were: 1429 season tickets at $2.50 each, $3572.50; Varsity old boys, $709.20; McGill, $2707.10; Queen's, $2149.25; Ottawa College, $4519.45; Argonauts, $6754.86; R.M.C. I. and II., $66.25; Junior Arts v. Victoria, $65.70. Total, $26,544.31. The expenses were about $6000.

Looks Like Win for Australia.

LONDON, Dec. 20.—England has scored 263 runs for eight wickets in the second innings. Gunn had 63 and Hearne 43 close of play.

Australia, first innings, 447.
England, first innings, 318.
Australia, second innings, 308.
England, second innings, 263 for eight wickets.

England thus requires 175 runs to win and can hardly turn the trick with only two wickets in hand.

Harness Horse Men Who Were Disciplined By Board of Review

There were 114 cases brought up at the recent meeting of the board of review of the National Trotting Association in New York, charging violations of the rules, and seven related to "ringers."

While the "Prof. Sphinx" (Jack London) "ringing" case was the most important and resulted in the expulsion of A. E. Richardson, who had to pay back $1760 in winnings, several horsemen from Philadelphia City and New Jersey were mixed up in the racing of Warwick Boy, formerly Red Pepper, 2.11¼. Warwick Boy was ordered expelled and J. J. Longbottom suspended until the recording fee of $50 is paid and all unlawful winnings shall be returned for redistribution.

W. R. Diehl of Portage, Pa., was fined $50 for starting the horse Doctor Coons, 2.22½, at Johnstown, Pa., and stands suspended until it is paid.

Harvey Whitby of Phoenixville failed to identify the grey gelding Chauncey D. Whitby was suspended for the offence, and also suspended until further order of the board until he makes identification of the bay gelding Willing.

Charles Whitby of Eagleville, Pa., was the defendant in three cases—starting Nig Direct, Little Bess and Laura W. out of their classes. He was convicted on two counts and was expelled, together with Little Bess and Nig Direct.

M. L. Smith of Hagerstown, Md., and W. R. Hutchings of Westfield, N.J., started Arlington Axworthy and Buena Vista, 3-year-olds, rigged with hoppies at Hagerstown and Meteuchen, and were ordered to return winnings.

George W. Spear of Morristown, N.J., expelled in 1906, was denied reinstatement, and Eberhard Vollmer of Trenton, N.J., who applied for release of fine imposed at Wilmington, Del., was also denied his request.

John White of Philadelphia was released from the fine of $50 imposed by the Gentlemen's Driving Club of Baltimore, Md., and the case against M. P. Wells of Philadelphia, who was charged with starting the colt Lynn Chimes as a 3-year-old, when he was really 4 years old, was dismissed, Wells having declined to take the winnings when the error was discovered.

Somebody entered the pacer Babe at Laurel, Md., in the name of "Fred Jamison" of Butler, Pa. The driver got out of the suspension that followed by proving that he did not make the entry.

The entry of Bob Stranger, claimed to have been made by B. E. Jones of Reading, Pa., was declared void, and Walter Garrison of Roadstown, N.J., will have to pay the entry fee on the pacer Ondaria in the 2.17 class to the Columbus Association.

Cases will be brought against R. J. Lambert of Norfolk, Va., for making a conditional entry at the Lafayette, Va., Association, and O. T. Granger, secretary of the association, for accepting a conditional entry.

Fight Trainer Dying.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 20.—Billy Delaney, the well-known trainer of pugilists, is confined to his Oakland home with an illness which his physicians fear may end fatally. They say he will never enter another training camp. Delaney, who is suffering from internal complications, came here from New York thirty years ago. He put Corbett in condition to meet Sullivan in New Orleans in 1892. When Corbett retired he developed Jeffries for the match in which Fitzsimmons lost his title. Delaney's last work was the training of Jack Johnson for the championship contest at Reno.

OLYMPIC BOUTS TO-NIGHT.

The Olympic Club's boxing show takes place to-night in the Agnes street Theatre. Following is the program:

Main bout—W. Lewis (N.Y.) v. H. Lang, 10 rounds, at 145 lbs.

Preliminaries—F. Fleming v. T. Butler, 10 rounds, at 118 lbs.; E. McCluskey (Philadelphia) v. Fred Johnson (Buffalo), 8 rounds at 145 lbs.; Bud White v. F. Lansdowne, 6 rounds at 120 lbs.

The reserved seat plan is at the Toronto Bowling Club, M. 1894.

Billy Allen and Pal Moore.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 20.—Pal Moore of Philadelphia and Billy Allen of Syracuse, who holds the lightweight championship of Canada, will box ten rounds in the main bout of the opening show of the Olympia A.C. at Genesee Hall on New Year's night.
