Dufferin Park Opens To-Morrow

The Metropolitan Racing Association have plenty of horses at Dufferin Park for the opening of the summer meet to-morrow. Among the owners are Hughie McCarren, J. W. Flynn, A. C. Airhart, Eugene Lutz and many others, and when the horses arrive from Montreal, it is expected that over 500 will be on hand. Judge Coe will again preside. Billy Murray will do the starting.

MAHER'S MONDAY SALE

The auction sale at Maher's Horse Exchange yesterday was rather quiet. The attendance was very good, and a large percentage of those on hand were buyers, but they did not seem to be all inclined to rush business. Consignments were many, and the class of horses offered was up to an exceedingly high standard of quality, probably a little too fine for the intending purchasers. Prices asked and obtained were comparatively fair, the market having remained slow for practically the entire month. The prices asked in the country for horses are very high and dominate the city market, keeping the prices up and the shipments low, and leaving the smallest possible margin of profit for the dealers.

A few of the buyers at the sale yesterday were: Vincent Egan, city; D. McGregor, city; T. H. M. Hulse, Aurora, Ont.; P. Mead, city; Joseph Bennett, city; W. Graham, city; R. Lowther, city; James Williamson, city; R. McKay, Deer Park, Ont.; Adams Furniture Co., city (2); Bert Y. Weese, Lindsay, Ont.; A. Richter, Hamilton, Ont.; Dominion Bakery, city; Dominion Express Co., city; J. J. Walsh, city; William Jenkinson, city; H. J. Darroch, city; Bennett & Abbott, city; B. Fairthorn, city; William Harris, city.

Quite a large number of horses are still on hand for private sale, and the management report that at least one, and possibly two carloads of fresh stock will be on hand for their auction sale at 11 o'clock next Thursday morning.

Three Straight Wins For Boston Red Sox

At Chicago—Boston made it three straight from Chicago, winning the game 7 to 5. The visitors took an early lead as a result of errors and Benz's wildness. Peters, who relieved Benz, was hit hard, while White pitched in fine form. Chicago bunched hits off E. Collins for a total of four runs before he retired in favor of O'Brien. Score: R.H.E.

Boston	0 0 4 0 3 0 0 0 0	7	9	1

Batteries—Benz, Peters, White and Block; Collins, O'Brien and Carrigan.

At St. Louis—St. Louis won from New York by 2 to 1. In the eighth inning, with the bases full, Martin threw past Chase, trying to get a runner, and two St. Louis players scored. Three singles in the ninth gave the New Yorkers their score. Score: R.H.E.

Detroit scored the tieing run in the ninth. Barry opened the eleventh with a double, advanced on an infield out and scored on Maggert's infield single, winning for Philadelphia by 7 to 6. Cubs Lucky to Win Giants Beaten a Run

At New York—Chicago won its third straight game from New York. The score was 4 to 3 and the victory was a lucky one. In the sixth Herzog drove to centre a hit which ordinarily would have scored Becker and Merkle, who were on second and third, but it happened that the ball grazed the lapel of the umpire's coat. The result was that Becker and Merkle were ordered back to the bases they had just occupied, and Myers, the next batter, hit into a double play. Score: R.H.E.

Chicago	1 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 0	4	8	1
New York	1 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0	3	5	2

Batteries—Richie, Reulbach and Archer; Tesreau, Ames and Myers.

At Boston—St. Louis-Boston, no game, wet grounds.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn made it three in a row with Cincinnati after a hot battle by 2 to 1. Rucker outpitched Humphries and saved the game in the ninth, when he speared Clarke's hot grounder and threw Egan out going to third. Both sides fielded brilliantly, causing most of the hits to be wasted. Egan made four hits in as many times at bat. Score: R.H.E.

Cincinnati	0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0	1	9	0

Batteries—Humphries, McLean and Clarke; Rucker and Miller.

At Philadelphia—A batting rally by Philadelphia in the seventh inning, when five singles were made off Camnitz's delivery, gave the home team a victory over Pittsburg here by 4 to 1. McCarty made two singles and a double in four times at bat. Score: R.H.E.

Pittsburg	0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 0	1	6	1
Philadelphia	1 0 0 0 0 0 3 0 x	4	8	0

Batteries—Camnitz and Gibson; Alexander and Killifer.
