SUFFICIENT ROOM FOR WOUNDED MEN

Director of Military Hospitals Commission Tells of Accommodation.

ROUND UP DEFAULTERS

Over a Hundred Recruits Examined at Mobilization Centre.

M. A. Armstrong, director of the military hospitals commission, stated definitely yesterday that the commission has ample accommodation in the province for the returned invalided soldiers.

There are 1,171 hospital beds available for returned soldiers, and not occupied, in Toronto military district, these comprising 160 empty beds at Whitby, 203 at Burlington, 409 at Guelph, and about 400 at Cobourg.

The policy of the Army Medical Corps of concentrating the returned men in Toronto is the root of the trouble. The M. A. C. authorities hold the returned soldier patients in the three hospitals in the city instead of distributing them evenly among the hospitals of the military district. The claim is put forward by the M. A. C. that it is necessary to keep the soldiers in Toronto because they require observation by military specialists. As the hospitals commission does not control the medical service of the hospitals it furnished, it is impossible for it to stop it and rearrange the location of these patients.

Round Up Defaulters. Acting under instructions from Ottawa, rounding up of the defaulters under the Military Service Act in Toronto district commenced yesterday under the direction of the district military prosecutor, Mr. J. H. Thompson, at the headquarters of the checking over the lists of defaulters has not been concluded, but it was decided to proceed to apprehend the men whose names appear on the list. The men who are pointed out to men who can show valid reasons for not reporting will, of course not be arrested.

The draft of members of the Canadian Officers' Training Corps recently selected for transfer overseas, will within the near future be starting westward. Announcement is made, however, that 12 members of the draft are to be retained in Toronto district so that they can be used as conducting officers overseas, going with parties of men called up under the Military Service Act.

Recruits Attended. One hundred and two recruits were examined yesterday by the Toronto Mobilization Centre, of whom 63 were accepted. They were enrolled as follows: Central Ontario Regiment, 28; Flying Corps, 25; Military Police and Cavalry Construction Corps, each 3; N. C. O. Training Company, 2; Guards and Ordnance Corps, each 1.

Lieut. H. G. Brunton, formerly of the 4th Battalion, has been detailed for duty as adjutant of the permanent conducting staff in Toronto Military District. Lieut. C. J. Miner, A.M.C., has been raised to rank of captain. Lieut. G. W. Harris, late 16th Battalion, has been appointed to the 1st Battalion, 1st Central Ontario Regiment.

HAMBURG TRIO POPULAR.

Concerts for Red Cross Increase in Favor and Merit.

More and more popular grow the concerts of the Hamburg Trio, as evidenced by the large audience who last night listened to the fine program presented in Foresters' Hall.

A feature of the program was the beautifully interpreted sonata, D major, op. 18, by Rubinstein, for violin and piano, played by Boris Hambourg and Kustin Conrad.

Especially attractive, being particularly enthusiastically received in his scholarly interpretation of the sonatas in E minor and E major and C and F minor.

The proceeds go to the Canadian Red Cross.

BRITISH WOMEN AIM AT PEACE ATTEMPT

Nottingham Conference Delegate Sends Invitation to Germany.

BACK LABOR OBJECTS Resolutions Also Support Proposed League of Nations.

Nottingham, Jan. 22.—At a conference of British workwomen here, a long resolution on the peace settlement was moved on behalf of the executive committee of the organization.

The resolution, which was adopted, stated that the women of Germany to join in the movement, saying:

"Surely our sympathies ought to go to many women in Germany, for they have suffered even more than we, and most of them are as desirous of peace as we are."

The resolution supported the labor war aims memorandum in full, denounced all private ownership of armaments, manufacturing concerns, and demanded the limitation of armaments to a police basis and the abolition of conscription.

Mrs. Solomons, president of the women of America, who was invited to the conference, said:

"I am particularly glad to see that the women of America, who have just won the franchise, should feel themselves thus drawn closer to the women of the United States, many of whom have had it for some time."

She said that the women of America, who have just won the franchise, should feel themselves thus drawn closer to the women of the United States, many of whom have had it for some time.

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"UPSTAIRS AND DOWN" EVENING OF LAUGHS

Well Staged and Well Played Comedy Seen at the Royal Alexandra This Week.

"Upstairs and Down" was worth waiting for. The only play in the city that Frederic and Fanny Hatton didn't concoct it sooner and that Oliver Morosco didn't serve it up earlier to the hungry first-nighter. A crowd of house at the Alexandra Theatre last night testified that the disappointment Monday, when the company didn't show up in time, was all for nothing, for every one settled back comfortably to enjoy an evening of solid laughs.

"Upstairs and Down" has many points in its favor—the author, the producer, the company and the play itself—but the title should not be overlooked, for it really means something. It has a genuine relationship to the play and the players. It deals with the master above stairs, and the servant below stairs. It proves that both are human beings, and that neither is a different kind of creature from the other. It deals with the humorous side of life as well as the realistic. Anthony Ives (Fred) and his wife, Mrs. Ives (Fanny), are numbered among the idle rich, too busy holding polo matches and giving parties to realize their love for one another. Their servants fill their spare moments with plotting together the flimsiest love letters written by their master and mistress, and their guests, and playing stakes for the one who is clever enough to add the correct signature.

Included in the excellent cast are Robert Arnold playing the part of Elsie Hunt, a fascinating and exquisitely blonde young widow, and Miss Dolly, Paul Harvey, Arthur Elliot, Herbert Farlow, Helen Sinnott, Elsie Ives, William Macdonald and Louis Christy.

The passions and pageants of Egypt's vampire queen, Cleopatra, with Theda Bara playing the part of the Egyptian queen, will be seen at the Royal Alexandra Theatre all next week, beginning Monday. Matinees will be given daily. Reserved seats will be placed on sale Thursday.

"The Willow Tree." Next week's attraction at the new Princess Theatre is the remarkable play, "The Willow Tree," by John Galsworthy, which will be given on Saturday and Sunday.
