United States Soldiers Tells of Progress in Construction

BLUE DEVILS' BANQUET

Provincial Government Entertains Visiting French Sol-

"The United States is in this war with the allies until it has been brought to a successful finish. There will be no limit to the number men that will be sent over from this side of the ocean to help crush Prussianism, and I don't believe I am betraying any state secrets when I tell you we will have the ships to carry them. From July 1 a ship will-be launched in the United States every 37 hours," said General Dyer of the United States army, speaking at the banquet offered by the Government of Ontario to the visiting "Blue Devils" in the King Edward Hotel on Saturday evening.

Sir Sam Hughes, who was present. was called upon to make a few remarks. He said he was happy to be given the opportunity of coming in Riverdale close touch with the "Blue Devils" on this occasion. He referred to the time he had been in France and had notified and O'Brian was brought into marched along with a regiment of Toronto. French infantry. "I thought I was some marcher," said Sir Sam, tell you when I tried to follow those French lads on the road I discovered I had still a great deal to learn."

No Formal Speeches. Premier Hearst said there would be no formal speeches. He wanted the boys to have a good time and to enthemselves to their hearts' consure the visit of the Blue Devils had Province of Ontario. He could not find words adequate to the occasion. Hie then called upon Lieutenant Le Moal, O.C. the "Blue Devils," to say a few words. Speaking in English, the lieutenant thanked the premier and the government for the splendid reception. "Don't forget this war is not the war of Great Britain or of France," said he. "It is the war of the whole civilized world. We have all been attacked by Germany, and we must all defend ourselves. Victory will come to the allies, and Germany will be defeated."

Rochereau de la Sabliere, French consul, speaking in French, told the Chasseurs they must not be misled. The people of Toronto were perhaps not as exuberant in their patriotism other people they met, but their patriotism was nevertheless deeprooted and most sincere, true and He referred to the many various kinds of war work undertaken by the people of this city, the splendid devotion they had shown to every undertaking in connection with the war.
