McElchie, George Syme, M.P., and Dr. St. John.

Several more brethren on the C.P.R. were laid off yesterday. It cost Edward Leitch $4 to get the work of liquor last night, that being the amount he was taxed by Police Magistrate Bill this morning.

Swissess. The Bolt Company, R. B. Johnston and the Sewer Pipe Company, assisted by York Township, have a gang of men at work on the sewer line, and are constructing the old conservation road or Queen-street extension, running parallel to and north of the lake shore road and the Grand Trunk Railway.

The work has been commenced at the intersection of the Warden-avenue and the Humber River. The many dangerous level crossings necessitate the works and residential properties.

The concession allowance runs in front of High Park and could be connected at Queen-street, Sunnyside, thus enabling the city to connect with the water line without incurring the risk of life, if not subject to it. It is also a concession to the city, as the township is anxious to connect Queen-street, Mimico, with the new road by bridging the water line.

The High Park Golf Club at making a substantial improvement to their club house on Eglie-avenue, and the grounds will be put in first-class order.

Quite a number of residences are in course of construction on the Windermer and roads north of the bolt works.
