Citizens Sabre-Slashed, Non-Union Men With Broken Limbs, Women and Children Trampled Under Foot, Soldiers Maimed and Ringleaders in a Crowd Beaten

Battle-Scarred Citizens.

Citizens, sabre-slashed, non-union men with broken limbs and bloody faces, women and children trampled under foot, soldiers maimed with flying missiles and ringleaders in a crowd beaten with the butts of muskets were some of the results of the day.

Anticipating an attempt to move the cars in Troy, Major-General Roe has ordered the 13th, 14th and 47th Regiments dered the 13th, 14th and 47th Regiments and property and the design back of it was evidently for an open, daylight movement, with arms enough to awe the crowd.

At 5 o'clock, the Third Signal corps, mounted and armed as cavalrymen, swung down thru the city, and formed on Broadway, just south of the depot. There were solid platoons in front and rear, and both flanks were closed in. As they rested, they formed a parallelogram, but later, when they sprang forward, their lines were depressed by the onslaught of the crowd, until owal was the shape of the outer line. Five thousand men tagged at their heels and jammed in around them when they and jammed in around them when they are deposited to the corps.

Mr. Clarke Urges Preparation.

Mr. E. F. Clarke thinks that the municipalities should begin at once to prepare to another fall with the Bell Telephone Company next year, for the company has declared its determination to come before Parliament in the session of 1902. To that end the member for West Toronto has addressed a letter to the City Solicitor of Toronto, in which he urges immediate action.
