A BRITISH PRODUCTION
ADAPTED FROM THE FAMOUS STAGE
SUCCESS.

This picture packed the Allen Theatre for three weeks in Toronto.
No greater comedy has ever been made, for incorporated in the photocomedy are pathos, humor and the personality of great actors in great characters.

OLD FOLKS

Your son sends you a personal message from the trenches in this picture. You see his troubles and fun and his great heroic spirit laughing and carrying on under conditions well nigh unbearable with mud and slime and filth.

To-morrow MOROSCOPE

By C. G. MOROSCOPE

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 11.

The interpretation of the sidereal influences for this day is rather perplexing, as there are many contradictory figures, both among the mutual and the lunar aspects. Notwithstanding which it may be a very busy day, and one on which the tendency will be toward new, large and bold enterprises, changes or journeys. There will be an element of the sudden, unexpected and the new, in the financial aspect of all ventures being gratifying as well as productive. This marked good fortune does not apply, however, to those in employment, in the domestic circle also there is need for protection, particularly in the matter of sickness.

Those whose birthday it is may expect an interesting and eventful year, which should bring financial gain if discreetly managed. A child born in this day should be proud, bold, enterprising and original, but should be taught thrift.

SMALL—but a sure remedy for kidney disorders and a real cure for rheumatism, lameness, sciatica, etc.
