RACING AT DUFFERIN PARK

Bookmakers Play Baseball, Leaving Betting to Take Care of Itself.

The regulars at Dufferin Park had a big surprise awaiting them yesterday afternoon. Instead of hearing the same old cries and inducements from the bookies to bet you money, the people had the pleasure of seeing a big crowd of bookies in the field, laying bets on the track, when they heard that the government had cancelled the charter. It meant a real loss of those concerned, but the club are willing to pay all the purses of the remaining day. Signs were tacked on the field, saying, "No betting or bookmaking on this track."

There was considerable betting done in secret among the crowd, who stayed to see the card thru. It was a case of friendly betting of your choice against another man's. What the outcome of the present predicament will be, it is hard to say. The result of the day's card is as follows:

FIRST RACE--Three-year-olds, 7-mile:

1. Bernie Cramer, 112 (Baker), 10 to 1.

2. Omyri, 110 (Connolly), 10 to 1.

THIRD RACE--Four-year-olds, 6 furlongs:

1. Stoneman, 117 (Baker), 10 to 1.

2. Birdslayer, 111 (Wilson), 10 to 1.
