is a humorist. Besides having an interesting per-sonality, Mr. Gilpin has been honored by giving his name to a Cobalt Mine. Naturally Dick Gilpin is interested with Naturally Dick Griph is interested in Gow Ganda. He was delighted with the quaint little stories told about the two young Scotchmen who discovered the Bartlett, and how a lucky strike lifted them in a day from prospectors to men who had money to spend. Dick Gilpin likes to listen to a good story and tells a few himself that makes one incredulous.

makes one incredulous. No one wishes success to Gow Ganda more than Dick Gilpin. Therefore he tells a story, in his inimitable style, about the resurrection of the first Chinaman who went to Gow Ganda. "We were coming back to Elk City from Gow Ganda," said Mr. Gilpin.

"The weather was 40 below zero and still a'dropping. In the caravan there naman who was poorly clad was a Chi

BASKETBALL AT ALL SAINTS'

All Saints Win From Central, But Lose to Hamilton....The Teams.

Two fast games of basketball were play-ed Friday night at All Saints' gymnasium. First game was between Central inter-mediates and All Saints (city champions). The first half of the genue was beteft mediates and All Saints (city champions). The first half of the game was bright and snappy, both sides having horized about even. In the second half some rough tactics were displayed by both teams; but, taking everything into con-sideration, it was a fine exhibition of basketball. The score at full time was $\frac{1}{4}$ to 14 in All Saints' favor. The two teams lined up as follows:
