OPPOSITION GAINS IN LATEST RETURNS FROM NEWFOUNDLAND CONTEST

ition Have Won Eleven and Government Six-Returns are About Half in But "People's Party" Seem Like Winners

St. John's East End: Kent 1,500, Shea 1,325, Dwyer 1,334, Gibbs 1,115, McNamara 932, Devine 909.

The election in Newfoundland brought to a close one of the keenest and bitterest campaigns in recent years. The so-called Liberal Government, led by Sir Robert Bond, has been in power for two terms, eight years. At last election, four years ago, they carried the country by a sweeping majority, winning 30 seats out of 36. A year ago, Sir Edward Morris, admittedly a man with a large personal following, who was regarded as Sir Robert Bond's lieutenant and held the portfolio of Minister of Justice, resigned and threw in his lot with the Opposition. This led to the formation of the Liberals.

The Liberal leader, Sir Robert Bond,
