LATE LOCALS

C. P. R. steamship Athenian left Hong Kong November 29th for Vancouver.

A lady's classical bag, found on St. David street, Nov. 29, has been left at the office of the chief of police.

Steamer Governor Cobb arrived in port at 12.15 o'clock today from Boston via Eastport with 50 passengers.

The dredge Galveston began work today at 12.30 p. m. at the western side of the I. C. R. pier. After the abutment has been laid she will work on the eastern side.

Mrs. J. F. Robertson delivered a very interesting and instructive lecture yesterday afternoon in the Natural History rooms before a large number of ladies. The subject was her trip through Mexico.

The big game season in New Brunswick closed yesterday and it is reported that the number of animals killed last year exceeded that of any other year. The receipts from the license issued the past season amounted to $27,000.00.

The Scotch concert given in St. David's church last night, under the direction of John Lloyd, largely attended. An excellent programme was rendered and the entertainment was a success.

John Watts has been reported to the court for allowing his horse to stand on the north side of King Square from 7.30 a. m. to 11.30 p. m. on the 29th inst., without being properly blanketed. Secretary Wetmore of the S. P. C. A. has been notified, and the case will come up tomorrow.

Two Protestant American clergymen, Rev. S. H. Mitchell and an assistant, are in an unpronounceable name are at the Grand Union hotel. They arrived this morning from the west, where they have been laboring among their people in the past six months. Rev. Mr. Mitchell is greatly pleased with the success attained by his people in the Canadian west and states that he is going to Liverpool and London to his own country, where he will report the golden opportunities that are available in the Canadian west.

A PAINFUL ACCIDENT

Mrs. Thomas Corbett of Paradise Row fractured Both Ankles Yesterday.

Mrs. Thomas Corbett of Paradise Row met with a painful and serious accident yesterday which resulted in the breaking of one of her ankles and the partial fracture of the other.
She was working with a child in the rear of the property, when she lost her balance and fell from the platform to the ground, a distance of several feet. She was removed at once to the home and medical aid hastily summoned. She is doing as well as can be expected under existing circumstances.

WAS RELEASED ON TAKING A PLEDGE

Wm. Guthrie is Out of Jail on His Promise to Drink No More.

William Guthrie, of 20 North street, whose wife and family have been in straitened circumstances, took the pledge in jail this morning and was released.
This is the second time that he has taken the pledge under similar circumstances and, according to statements made by the warden, is the only criminal means of keeping him from drink.

About a month ago he was arrested for drunkenness and given his liberty on condition that he keep away from liquor. He failed to comply with the agreement and was again taken into custody and sent in for the term of servitude from which he has just been released.

Mrs. Guthrie complained to the police yesterday, stating that unless her husband were released from jail that she and her family of five children, including a nine-months' old baby, would be obliged to seek shelter in the Alms House.
Secretary Wetmore of the Alms House commissioners, said today that he had conferred with an officer of the St. Vincent de Paul Society and that Mrs. Guthrie and her family would receive attention from that source.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Tonight and Saturday night the Nauney-Rennie players will present at the Opera House Tom Taylor's great moral drama, The Ticket of Leave Man. This great play presents one of the greatest moral lessons ever seen on the stage. At Saturday's bargain matinee The Man of the World will be given. Monday and the first half of next week Sir Walter Scott's great novel, dramatized as Rob Roy, will be given. The play will be interspersed with an abundance of Scotch songs and ballads.

Mrs. M. P. Simpson of Moncton, N. B. was registered at the Dominion Hotel, Victoria, B. C. last week.

HENRY'S PLAN DID NOT WORK

Henry Gay Sought Public Subscriptions for a Drinking Bout and Now He is in Jail.

Because Henry Gay wanted to drink and trust his friends at the expense of the public, he was arrested last night and appeared before the police magistrate this morning charged with begging from door to door on Main street.
According to the police Gay started in to have a taste, and invited his friends to join him. Finally his exasperated out, but nothing daunted, he resolved to continue his hospitality.

He accordingly started in to say his addresses to a number of the main street merchants, from whom he demanded from ten cents down as low as three, until he gathered in sufficient funds, when he rejoined his two friends and set them up again.

Gay was sent to jail on remand. Cornelius Murphy and Wm. Dunlavy were fined $4.00 or ten days each for drunkenness.

Business Notices

Any one in need of an ulcer for himself or boy, should read Henderson & Hunt's notice on page 10 of today's issue. This firm certainly offers great bargains.

F. A. Dykeman & Co. announce today, on page 7, a great clearance sale of ladies' and children's clothing, to commence on Saturday morning. A big sale of ladies' silk neckwear, as a sale of ribbons is advertised. A substantial saving is assured all who come.

F. W. Daniel & Co. advertise in today's Times a great reduction in the sale of ladies' and children's clothing, in new dresses, as well as fine hosiery. This is necessary to effect a clearance before Christmas. Business bargains that are marked at a considerable sale price and are great bargains. There are some particularly pretty young ladies' suits on sale. Also a special clearance sale of ladies' and children's goods, winter hats at the smallest price is announced.

Larger ahead, St. John is getting to be a supply place just now, in our large stock of winter clothing we have a full supply of the most perfect ice cream, in imagination, so easily adjusted and taken on. The Canadian Bank night now without a job. Don't turn up your nose at it. Young's shoe warehouse, 601 Main street; also, see our gold point ad on page 7 of the paper.

Those who find it hard to decide just what would be the best Christmas gift to get for their girlfriends in the United States, may find the advertisement of J. N. Harvey on pages 8 and 9 of today's Times. They suggest some very useful and always acceptable gifts, and are marked at a considerable sale price and are great bargains. There is no more reliable place in town at which to buy. You will find complete and obliging salesmen always ready to assist you.

Great clearance sale today and tomorrow at the gigantic sale now going on at the main building, 1000 Main street, at the corner of the street, on Y. M. C. A. building, now carefully the ad. on page 2.

SALE OF BRIDAL SUITES.

Saturday shoppers will be interested in the advertisement of Almond Bros. and in the sense of their big sale of wedding suits, which are now marked at even reduced prices and everyone would be doing on hand to secure them while they last. They are in quiver, oak, mahogany, fluted, etc., and good housekeepers should not miss this great chance.

There is nothing like a heart-to-heart talk with the public on the subject of Amusements.
The merchant uses the wireless method proposed through the medium of the Public Typewriting Bureau, 20 Canterbury Street.
A typewriting agitator written on the merchant's intended can now be supplied from the rotary mimeograph in 50 or 100 lots, almost as cheap as the price of a letter. The Bureau is in charge of experts who will submit new ideas in phraseology, write the letters, set it, stop, and deliver them at short notice. Get ready to deliver broadcast from the new rotary gun.

ST. ANDREW'S CELEBRATION

St. Andrew's Society will celebrate its 25th anniversary this evening in the York Theatre and the preparations that have been made ready for the occasion bespeak much for its great success. The programme will be carried out in the theatre and after the speeches the officers and their guests will march to the dining room. The ball room has been covered over and the dining room is beautifully decorated with the society's colors, blue and white, while the walls are adorned with Scotch pictures.

Dancing will take place on the York theatre stage, a magnificent floor for dancing having been laid at the expense of the society. Throughout the theatre the Scottish colors and banners are most conspicuous.

Congratulatory telegrams from sister societies throughout Canada and the United States have been received by the president.
