CROWN CASE IS FINISHED

This Morning's Session in Collins Trial Was Brief

CHIEF CLARK ON STAND

Mr. McKeown Says Defence Will Call No Witnesses-- Court Will Sit Tonight to Hear Argument and Case Will Finish Tomorrow.

HOPEWELL CAPE, via Hillsboro, N. B., Jan. 23 (Special).--At this morning's session the crown closed its case in the Collins murder trial.

Two witnesses were examined, Chief Clerk of St. John, and Fred F. Burton, of Albert.

Chief Clark told about the incidents which followed the capture of Collins, and identified the telephone calls in court as the same one which was handed to him in Dean's hotel, at Musquash.

Mr. Burton, a house and carriage painter, painted the closet doors in Father McArdy's house during the winter of 1903. He described the composition of the color and gave as his opinion that if one were striking an axe into the door in warm weather some of the paint would adhere to it.

Mr. McKeown said that the defence proposed to call no witnesses in the case. He asked the court and counsel what they thought of section 66 of the Criminal Code, which gives counsel for the defence the right to examine the jury list with a right of reply where they summon no witnesses.

His honor ruled adversely to the request, and the court took recess at 11.15 till two o'clock.

Rebuttal evidence was heard and the case adjourned till 5 o'clock.

Judge Gregory announced that a night session will be held tonight to allow counsel to finish their addresses. The case will be finished tomorrow.

THE CHARGE IS CRUELTY

Donaldson Line is Summoned to Court

BY THE S. P. C. A.

Charge that Donaldson Line Employees Abused a Stallion While Landing it From S. S. Marina-- Evidence Was Heard and Case Adjourned.

The case of the S. P. C. A. against the Donaldson line for cruelty to a Clydesdale stallion while it was landed from the steamer Marina, at the McLeod wharf, occupied considerable time at this morning's session of the police court.

John Miller, the cattle foreman of the Donaldson line, against whom the information was laid, pleaded not guilty.

The witnesses examined were S. P. C. A. Secretary S. Merritt Wetmore, Milton Porter, of Simcoe, Ontario; William Mason, Duke Fox, William F. Fox.

In the evidence it developed that on Monday afternoon Secretary Wetmore went to the McLeod wharf and saw the stallion referred to lying on the ice and snow at the edge of the wharf. He had measured the opening in the vessel through which the horses were ashore, and found it to be 5 feet 5 1/2 inches high, one inch shorter than the stallion. The animal was taken later to the shed and veterinarians were unable to state just what was wrong.

It also appears from testimony that the animal was beaten and probed in an effort to get it through the opening, which it is alleged, was too low, considering the position of the gang plank.

Rebuttal evidence was heard and the case adjourned till 5 o'clock.

CONSIDERABLE DISORDER AT TRIAL OF HARRY THAW

STARTED THIS MORNING

Clashes Between Police and Newspaper Men Enlivened Proceedings Before Court Opened--Countess of Yarmouth and Thaw's Wife and Mother in the Court Room--The Line of Defence.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.--The trial of Harry K. Thaw, for killing Stanford White, will begin today before Justice Fitzgerald in the criminal branch of the supreme court. Two hundred taleman have been summoned and it is expected that it will take a week to fill the jury box.

Criminal lawyers generally have taken an interest in the case, and it is their opinion that the unwritten law and emotional insanity will play a large part in the efforts of Thaw's lawyers. This being so, it is thought that Thaw's counsel will endeavor to obtain only such jurymen as would be influenced by the plea indicated. Thaw is said to have been studying up criminal trials during the last few days. It is understood that he intends to take an active part in the election of a jury.

Thaw will be seated beside his counsel, at the head of which will be Mr. Hart, Mr. Deltus, the California lawyer, will play an important part later in Thaw's defence. On the prosecution side there will be District Attorney Jerome and Assistant District Attorney Garvan. The witness will attend mostly to the selection of the jurors, while Mr. Jerome will cross-examine the defendant's witnesses and conduct the direct examination of most of the people's witnesses.

Of Thaw's family, there will be in court his mother, his wife, his two sisters, Mrs. Carnegie and the Countess of Yarmouth, and his brother Edward. The Thaws will occupy seats behind the defendant.

It has been suggested that women be not allowed in the court room and few appeared. The quarrels with the Thaw family, and those that are there on duty for the newspapers.

Great preparations have been made for the trial. A telegraph company has strung wires into the court house and telegraph office has been erected temporarily on the main floor.

Many out of town newspapers will have reporters present and even London and Paris have sent correspondents, so widespread is the interest in the remarkable tragedy.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.--Scenes approaching absolute disorder attended the opening of the trial of Harry K. Thaw in this city today on the charge of murdering Stanford White. Most of the clashes were between reporters and correspondents and the police.

Of the newspaper men there were perhaps 200 and there was a policeman for each. The great squad of bluecoats was commanded by a police inspector. Only about 50 newspaper writers finally were admitted, the remainder of the space in the court room being reserved for the 200 taleman, summoned on the special jury panel.

The trial before Justice Fitzgerald, in part on trial terms for the supreme court, was scheduled for 10.30 a. m. Before that time the police lines had been extended for the corridor adjacent to the court room to include the entire first floor of the criminal courts building. When the newspaper men had been disposed of there were more police than any other in the neighborhood of the big building. The public had been warned in advance not to attempt to get into the court room and few appeared.

IMPROVEMENT AT SAND POINT

Shelter for Longshoremen and Employees Advocated

THAT OIL SHACK

Where Roy Nobles Lost His Life--Citizens Say it Should Never Have Been Built of Wood--Should Have Been Fireproof.

The shocking fatality at Sand Point last night, when Roy Nobles, a well known young man was burned to death in a shack, was the principle topic of conversation on the streets today.

Attention has been directed to the fact that the shack should never have been allowed to have been built of wood. After the disastrous fire at the Point a few years ago it was decided that all oils should be kept in a shed outside the building, and the lamps filled there. Accordingly this shack was built as a point about midway between No. 3 and 4 sheds and the elevator, but instead of building it of brick or sheet iron or other fireproof material it was built of wood, which when it became soaked with oil, burned like a torch when the fire was applied to it. It is also argued that the door of the building should have been kept locked, and no one allowed in but the man whose duty it was to be there.

A prominent west side resident speaking of the matter this morning said that while the young man's life might not have been saved, even though the shed had been of brick or other material, yet it should have been made as near fireproof as possible on account of the valuable property in that vicinity. It is understood that when the shed is rebuilt it will be made of fireproof material.

A shelter for the use of the longshoremen and freight handlers, where they get wet and could eat their meals, is also advocated. At present the men have no place to which they can go if they are cold, and in eating their lunches they have to sit around on bags or boxes in the sheds, no matter how cold the days may be.

AWFUL FATE OF WEALTHY HERMIT

Daniel Heaston Was Evidently Murdered Because He Would Not Give Up His Money.

EAUGLAIRE, Mich., Jan. 23.--The body of Daniel Heaston, a wealthy hermit, was found late yesterday frozen in his own blood in a small hut near his home where he had been living alone. There was evidence that the old man had been tortured to make him reveal the hiding place of his money. Amputated fingers and toes lay scattered about and the appearance of a heavy rope and of a beam over which it hung, coupled with marks on the victim's neck indicated that he had been strung up to the rafters for a time. Apparently a blow in the head with a hatchet had ended his sufferings. It is thought that the murderers secured the booty they sought as no money was found.

E. TENNYSON SMITH OPENS CAMPAIGN IN WOODSTOCK

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Jan. 22.--(Special).--A seven days' campaign against the liquor traffic was opened in the opera house by E. Tennyson Smith, the temperance orator, last night before a crowded house, and will conclude with the Trial of Alcohol in the same building on Monday night. Rev. Dr. Kierstead, pastor of the United Baptist church was chairman and introduced the lecturer, who recently conducted a campaign in Rockford, Mass., in the church of which Rev. Mr. Kierstead was pastor.

Mayor Munro welcomed the distinguished lecturer to the town. He said he was proud to be there as the representative of the town to extend a welcome to the world renowned temperance lecturer, E. Tennyson Smith, who stands alone and far above any such lecturer, who ever came here.

Mr. Smith congratulated the town on having a temperance mayor. He said he never feels like a stranger in any town for he is always favored by having many friends. War was declared on the liquor traffic and if he did not hurt somebody there would be no war. It would not be his fault if he did not hurt somebody in Woodstock. He told of his work throughout the world.

He explained his crusade in St. John and Fredericton. In the latter city the temperance people were downcast before his visit; now the whole city was stirred and $500 had been raised for Scott Act purposes, notwithstanding the clamor of those who had been living alone. There was evidence that the old man had been tortured to make him reveal the hiding place of his money. Amputated fingers and toes lay scattered about and the appearance of a heavy rope and of a beam over which it hung, coupled with marks on the victim's neck indicated that he had been strung up to the rafters for a time. Apparently a blow in the head with a hatchet had ended his sufferings. It is thought that the murderers secured the booty they sought as no money was found.

COLD SNAP IN FRANCE

Temperature From 10 to 17 Degrees Below Zero Results in Considerable Suffering.

PARIS, Jan. 23.--The cold prevailing in eastern Europe has extended its grip westward. In France today the temperature is 10 to 17 degrees below zero, resulting in considerable suffering, and a number of deaths from freezing. The river Seine and the lakes in the Paris basin are frozen and the Parisians are enjoying the unusual sport of skating in the open.

The Marathon Club is in receipt of two communications, one from the U. N. B. and the other from Maine. The U. N. B. boys want to play the local boys home and home games in basketball and the contests will probably be arranged. The crack Machias, Me., team also want to come here and throw the leather with the Marathons but a match with them has not been decided upon as yet.

Factory Inspector McMullin returned today from Woodstock and that vicinity where he inspected about six mills. He states that there is not so much snow in that vicinity as there is in St. John yet considerable logging is going on. He reports that lumber has dropped about $1 in price. While there Mr. McMullin inspected about six factories and found them all in first-class order.

Coroner Kenney has definitely decided that no inquest will be held in connection with the death of the late Wallace Brown, who was killed at Sand Point on Saturday last.

SWETTENHAM'S EXPLANATION HAS REACHED THE GOVERNMENT

LONDON, Jan. 23.--The government has heard from Governor Swettenham of Jamaica concerning the incident involving the withdrawal of the American warships from Kingston. Absolute secrecy is maintained with the colonial office but the fact was elicited that during the night a good many telegrams were received from Swettenham, some of which dealt with the incident. These it is understood confirm the main features of the affair already published. It is not the present intention of the colonial office to make the telegrams public, the official view being that it is a personal matter between a government department and an official which is properly adjustable between them, and the authorities incline to the view that general interest will be best served by having the replies appear in a blue book at some distant period, in the meantime being dealt with through the usual diplomatic channels for intercourse between powers and power.

At the foreign office it was admitted that there were telegrams from Swettenham relative to the incident but it was added they are not regarded as being the

Mrs. Helen I. McRoberts

The death occurred this morning at 5.30 o'clock of Helen I. widow of the late John McRoberts, at her residence on Crown street.

The deceased a few days ago contracted a cold, which resulted in congestion of the lungs. Heart failure, however, was the cause of death.

The late Mrs. McRoberts was born in this city and was a daughter of the late Captain Charles Peter. She is survived by two brothers, A. W. Petch, of this city and Alex. Petch of Lynn; one daughter, Miss Edith, and J. S. Coughlan and Fred Coughlan, both brothers.

The funeral of the late Lloyd Corkey, who died as the result of injuries sustained by falling from a loading leading up to St. Peter's school, was held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock from the residence of his parents, 122 Douglas avenue. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

Robert Baxter, the expert from Halifax, who is to be employed in making an investigation into the gas plant in this city, is expected to arrive here tomorrow to commence his work.

LAST NIGHT'S FATALITY

Coroner's Jury Viewed Body This Morning--Inquest Starts Tomorrow.

The inquest in connection with the death of Roy Nobles, who was burned to death at Sand Point last night, was begun before Coroner Kenney this morning. The following jurymen were empanelled: J. Leslie Smith (foreman), John Leonard, Henry Rowley, John M. Christopher, Fred Fullerton, George Reid, Samuel McChelland.

The jurymen viewed the body at Beatley's undertaking establishment and also viewed the scene of the fire. An adjournment was then made until tomorrow morning at ten o'clock.

Coroner Kenney gave permission for the removal of Mr. Nobles' body to Chamberlain's undertaking rooms.

The four rinks of St. Andrew's curlers who played at St. Stephen last evening returned home at noon today. The local men won the match by 7 points, the score being 69 for St. John and 62 for St. Stephen. An error in the dispatch which appears in the sporting columns on page 7 gives the result as being in favor of St. Stephen by 2 points. The error was in crediting Skip Klein of St. Stephen with 19 points instead of 10.

A very pleasant surprise was experienced last evening by Miss Clara McGow, when a number of her friends and fellow workers in White's restaurant, King street, called on her at her home, Paradise Row, and presented her with a handsome case of silverware and an address. Miss McGow has severed her connection with White's and tomorrow will become the wife of Arthur Cassidy, of Brookville. Her many friends will wish her every happiness.

A special meeting of the Y. M. S. of St. Joseph will be held this evening to discuss the proposal of entering a team in the local league. In all probability the society will enter a team.

The outward cargo of the steamship Manchester Trader, now on her way to Manchester from this port, is valued as follows: Cotton goods, $61,298; foreign goods, $23,287; total, $84,585.

THE TIMES NEW REPORTER

THAT JAMAICA JOKE. The announcement by Governor Swettenham that he was only joking in his letter to Admiral Davis has caused a profound sense of relief, although several prominent persons have gone off their heads and had to be confined in lunatic asylums as a result of their efforts to see the joke.

Mr. Peter Binks, discussing the question this morning, said that he could quite appreciate the governor's humor, because the governor had lived long in the east, and he (Mr. Binks) had read of one eastern potentate who was in the habit of calling one of his subjects before him, cutting off his head with one blow of his sword, and then assuming the dejected person that it was all a joke. No doubt Governor Swettenham was familiar with the pleasure of this nature, and had modified it to suit the conditions and oppor-

RICHMOND HAS $300,000 FIRE

During Its Course 500,000 Rounds of Ammunition Exploded and Made Fire Fighting Dangerous.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 23.--The Williams Building, located in the retail section, was burned today, estimated loss $300,000, insurance unknown. For a time the fire assumed threatening proportions, and it was feared much valuable property would be destroyed. Two other fires followed that in the Williams Block, the loss being heavy.

The principal losers are the Surburg Tobacco Company, Adams Express Company and the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, whose armory was located in the building. The Blues lost their entire outfit and a visit to the Jamestown Exposition, which had been planned, will have to be abandoned.

The fire was a spectacular one and attracted great crowds. The explosion of 500,000 rounds of ammunition, stored in the armory, made the work of fighting the flames dangerous. Captain Kaako of Truck Co. No. 2, was seriously injured by falling walls.

The announcement in this morning's Telegram that the American consular agency here will be closed March 31st, created considerable surprise here. It is likely that a delegation will be sent to Washington to urge the state department to reconsider the matter.

The Marathon Athletic Club received word today that the Wanderers, of Halifax, could come to this city to play hockey between February 4th and 14th. Games will likely be arranged.

John "Tip" O'Neill, expects to leave for Chicago in a short time. At present he is suffering with an injured ligament in the right leg.

Frank Black, of Indianton, and Joe Paul, of Pleasant Point, raced half a mile on Miller's pond last night and the match proved very exciting. Black won by two seconds.

Director Wisely will probably pay a visit to No. 8 engine house on the west side today with the idea of seeing what arrangements can be made to allow the Seaman's Mission to use the premises as a meeting place for the women on the west side.

THE MARATHON ATHLETIC CLUB RECEIVED WORD TODAY THAT THE WANDERERS, OF HALIFAX, COULD COME TO THIS CITY TO PLAY HOCKEY BETWEEN FEBRUARY 4TH AND 14TH.
