- V. In each class occasional examinations in writing, held at such times as the Professor may appoint, shall form part of the work of students who follow the ordinary curriculum, but the number of such examinations in any class during a session shall not exceed the number of hours per week at which that class is required to meet.
- VI. There shall be two Pass examinations annually—one at the close of a session and the other at the commencement of the following session, on such days and at such hours as the Senate shall appoint.
- VII. Students who are candidates for graduation must undergo a Pass examination on the subject or subjects taught in every class of the course prescribed for graduation.
- VIII. When a student shall have completed the required attendance on any class he may present himself for examination on the subject or subjects taught in that class at either the first or second Pass Examination which shall occur next after the completing of his attendance; but he shall not be allowed to appear for examination on such subject or subjects, at any subsequent Pass Examination, unless with special permission of the Senate granted on account of sickness or some similar cause duly certified.
