

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"HEART OF MARYLAND" COMING TO IMPERIAL

Another of the larger photoplay productions will be shown for three days commencing Monday next at Imperial Theatre is "The Heart of Maryland," in which the world-famed actress, Mrs. Leslie Carter appears. It cost over $100,000 and 5,000 people are employed including 1,000 soldiers and 40 principal actors, and 200 horses. A church was built and completely equipped, then demolished by explosion and fire during the retreat of the Confederate army. The picture was directed by Herbert Brenson who was responsible for such plays as "Neptune's Daughter," and has just completed the Million Dollar Annette Kellerman picture "Daughter of the Gods." "The Heart of Maryland" was the photoplay chosen when the New York Hippodrome when it decided to become a high class motion picture house, and during the nine days it was shown 118,000 people paid for admission. The screen version of David Belasco's story of the south is an equivalent of a few years ago.

RICH PROGRAMME AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Opera House programme for tonight, tomorrow and Saturday has been a most excellent one. The principal feature, Miss Murray in "The Dream Girl" for the principal feature. Miss Murray has been seen at the Opera House recently in two excellent screen productions: "To Have and to Hold," and "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." In the "Dream Girl" she has one of the best opportunities of her career on the screen. The excellent cast includes Theodore Roberts, Mary Mearns and Jess Nell. The programme also includes a new Bray animated cartoon and the 6th chapter of the sensational serial drama Liberty.

TONIGHT AT THE GEM

The picture programme at the Gem Theatre last evening won favor with all. It was most diversified, there being three good features—"The Yellow Menace," "The Girl Who Didn't Tell," and a very funny Heine and Louise comedy. You will enjoy it very much, come tonight.

A REMARKABLE FILM FOR BOYS

From 8 until 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon of this week—following the regular matinee—the boys delegates of the Y. M. C. A. Conference will be the guests of the Imperial Theatre at a special presentation of the Edison-Paragon four-reel boy story "Thomas Jefferson Morgan, P.J.G." This is no doubt the most engaging and helpful vocational film-story ever conceived and is the gift to Y. M. C. A. work of the Curtis Publishing Co. of Philadelphia, publishers of the Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal and Country Gentleman. It cost more than $20,000 to produce, being enacted by brilliant colorists, boy and girl picture stars and notable adult players.

A NOTIC CAUSES

The Climbers To aim high in life is noble, but it is the means one employs to accomplish this aim that counts. "The Climbers," a four act comedy drama, is built upon a story that is sure to please. The climax of the plot is reached in a dramatic scene seldom seen. Lovers of good comedy-drama have in "The Climbers" a play that they will greatly enjoy and one that they should not fail to see.
