London, Oct. 4—Former Premier Venizelos in a long letter to the Tirace protests against the return of Thrace to the Turks, who, since the beginning of the war, he declares, have destroyed in Asia Minor more than a million and a half Armenians. He writes:

"If it is necessary to give further guarantees to Kemal that the promise concerning the return of Eastern Thrace will meet with no obstacle in its execution, this province could be as a last resort occupied by the allied troops until execution of the treaty. If Kenual withdraws from the neutral gene, the British troops are thus freed from the process are exercised upon them they will constitute a sufficient force in conjunction with detachments of troops belonging to the other allied powers, whose contingents are relatively small, to occupy the whole of Eastern Thrace.

"This military occupation would give them the power and the right of absolute control of the Greek administration, so that all Turkish fears regard."
