Ten city teachers have passed a second year course music examination and 11 have been successful in the first year examination. Both courses were instructed by Prof. J. F. Browne, supervisor of music in the city schools, and the examinations were held by the Washington College of Music in May of this year. The names of the successful candidates have just been announced.

At the local examination in public school methods the successful candidates were ten of the Catholic teaching sisters and one lay teacher. The majority of the lay teachers who desired presented themselves for examination last year. The same course was repeated this year by Mr. Browne in order that the Catholic teachers might be equally well equipped for the work of teaching music. The examination took the form of two papers, one set by Mr. Browne, who is a member of the faculty and holds a bachelor's degree in music education from Washington College and the other set by the college authorities. There was also an examination in practice teaching.

CLASS LEADER

All of the teachers made high standing, but the class was led by Sister M. Augustine with 84 per cent. She was closely followed by Sister M. Annabell with 83 per cent. Both of these teachers are on the staff of Holy Trinity school. The following are the successful candidates: Sister Augustine, Sister Annabell, Sister Bernard, Sister Pauline, Sister Ethelreda, Sister Marcella, Sister Dominica, Sister Consuela, Sister Benigna and Miss Ruth Hanson. The advanced second year examination was in musical history and appreciation. A large class of teachers attended Mr. Browne's 28 weekly lectures in these subjects, but only a limited number presented themselves for examination. Of these, 10 passed and the highest marks were made by Miss Beatrice Gonnell, of St. Vincent's boys' school with 97½ per cent, second by Miss C. C. Robinson, of King Edward school, with 93½ per cent. This examination was an extremely searching one and lasted a whole day. As in the case of the first year tests one paper was set by Mr. Browne and one by the college. The teachers who distinguished themselves by passing the second year examination were the Misses Beatrice Gonnell, C. C. Robinson, Hester Sleep, Mary E. Barlow, Mary L. Killorn, Catherine Z. Barlow, Ann Gonnell, Isabelle Reed, Helen Harrington and Ruth Hanson.

Serbian Peasants Make Sign of Cross When Haunted Car of Archduke Ferdinand Passes

Special to The Times-Star
PARIS, Aug. 11.—The motor car in which the late Archduke Francis Ferdinand and his wife were riding when the assassination took place, at Sarajevo, in July, 1914—which precipitated the war—is still being used in Serbia, but when the peasants see it pass they make the sign of the cross, for it is looked upon as an accursed car.

This belief is due to the amazing sequence of fatalities and accidents of which subsequent users of the vehicle have been victims. The car was taken over after the war by a Dr. Strick, Governor of Bosnia, but following a series of minor accidents and inexplicable mechanical troubles he sold it to a wealthy Bosnian.

While travelling from Mostar to Sarajevo by night, the new owner was startled by the vehicle slowing down without cause. He examined the mechanism, found there was nothing wrong with it, and again got in, but the car refused to start.

Two horses were attached to it, when the motor restarted without being touched, causing the driver to lose his head, and the horses took fright.

CAR OWNER KILLED
Finally the car overturned on the owner, who was killed.

Other subsequent purchasers had kindred experiences, and when a Mr. Baghikavara took it over to use it as a local transport service, he could not get a single passenger, all the people having come to the conclusion that the car was bewitched.
