WILLIAMS AND ELLER LIKELY IN BATTLE TODAY

Even Money on Eighth Game of World Series

WEATHER MAN UNCERTAIN

Faber Pitching Possibility For Sox But Williams The Choice—Prospect For Very Large Attendance

Chicago, Oct. 9.—Contentants of the world's baseball championship by virtue of their four to one victory over the Cincinnati Reds yesterday, the Chicago White Sox returned to Comiskey Park today to make a determined effort to draw ahead the Reds in the matter of games won at 4-4. Regarded as out of the race for premier baseball honors when the Reds took the first two games of the series in the Ohio city and then won two out of three here, the American League pennant winners apparently found their long lost batting eyes and the two victories they hammered out on successive days on foreign soil brought a return of the pre-series confidence in the ultimate outcome to their supporters here.

Needling but the single game to bring his team the championship, Manager Moran was expected to send "Red" Eiler, shine-ball pitcher to the mound today in the eighth game of the series. Eiler established the world's series record of six successive strikeouts when he held the White Sox to three hits, one a scratch, in the game here on Monday when Cincinnati won 5 to 0. Claud (Lefty) Williams, twice defeated by the Reds, but holding them to an aggregate of eight hits in the two games, was expected to be Manager Gleason's selection for mound duty.

Williams' pitching was of high order but each time he opposed twirlers before whom the White Sox hitters actually were powerless. With the assertion that "his boys" had recovered their batting eyes and fighting spirit, as they evidenced yesterday and Tuesday when they batted from the box Raether and Sallee, who opened the National League's batting order, were expected to be the star left-handers would pitch a comeback game as did the Sox yesterday.

Manager Moran, while somewhat surprised that his charges had failed in two attempts to assure the National League's possession of the 1919 world's championship, merely pointed to the breaks of the game as responsible for what he termed the "postponement." He seemed confident today would end the series, making unnecessary the ninth game tomorrow at Cincinnati.

Weather Uncertain. Showers were indicated in the official weather forecast for today, making uncertain just what brand of weather the eighth game would draw, after seven playing days of unparalleled weather. Moderate temperature was forecast, however, and it was said the game would be played unless there was a heavy rain at 2 o'clock.

Interest in the series at Chicago was renewed by the come-back the White Sox staged, and with two days of ticket sales for today's game the prospect was that approximately a capacity crowd would be out.

"Red" Faber, hero of the 1917 world's series, was mentioned as a White Sox pitching possibility, but the consensus of opinion was that Williams would be given the honor. Faber is said to have recovered form, though he was virtually on the retired list all the season.

Few wagers on the outcome of the series were reported today. Prevailing odds on the series result apparently were 2 to 1 in favor of Cincinnati and even money on today's game.

The probable line-up and batting order follows:

Cincinnati—Rath, 2b.; Daubert, 1b.; Groh, 3b.; Roush, cf.; Duncan, Jr., R. F. C.; Neale, P.; Halpern, 2b.; Eiler, P. Chicago—Liebold, P.; Collins, 2b.; Weaver, 3b.; Jackson, 1b.; Felsch, cf.; Gandil, 1b.; Risberg, ss.; Schalk, 2b.; Williams, P.

It was slightly cloudy early today and a cool wind was blowing. Showers, with a moderate temperature, was the official weather forecast.

APPROVE PROJECT OF PRESBYTERIAN BOYS' SCHOOL AT PICTOU

Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 9.—At this morning's meeting of the Presbyterian synod, Rev. W. W. McNair made the report of a committee appointed to consider the erection of the Pictou Presbyterian boys' school established at Pictou affiliated with the Pictou Academy. It approved of the plan to build the school.

UNDER THE GAME LAW. Fredericton, N. B., Oct. 9.—The Colonial Hide Company was fined $50 yesterday for having the hide of a calf moose in its possession. Fifteen untanned moose hides also were found in possession of the company.

A resident of Burt's Corner was fined $10 and costs for doing business as a buyer of moose hides without a license.

WILL PROCEED WITH WATER AND SEWERAGE MAINS

Extensions to be Made in Mount Pleasant and West End—Council Approves

The decision to proceed with the laying of water and sewerage mains in Mount Pleasant Court was arrived at by the city commissioners, meeting in committee this morning. This action was confirmed subsequently in council.

The council also decided to go ahead with the installation of similar facilities for the area on which the city housing commission is to erect dwellings in West St. John.

In reporting on the progress made by the housing commission, Mr. Bullock suggested that the act would be more workable if the maximum cost permitted was increased and the minimum cash payment decreased.

Accounts in connection with the soldiers' and price's days were presented and passed, including F. W. Strong, shields, $50; M.R.A., Ltd., $88.40; G. Day, $24; Temple Band, $50.

Paving Plans Sent Back. The million dollar paving programme prepared by the public works department on the mayor's motion was brought up by Mr. Fisher. Mr. Thornton objected strongly to Mr. Fisher's recommendation that certain paving work be done by appropriation, that if bonds were to be issued for paving work they should cover all such work.

He also said that the programme included nothing for West St. John. Mr. Fisher replied that the west end work was to be paid for from appropriations.

The mayor also objected to the appropriation recommendations, and the matter was referred back for further consideration and report.

A report of the city engineer on the condition of the street railway t-tie on Rodney wharf was presented. He found some repairs needed, but the structure safe for street railway traffic. The report was adopted and a copy ordered sent to the N. B. Power Company.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram" said the Times reporter, "do you remember that tree below the spring—the one whose leaves were rich, deep purple so early in the season? And that maple farther down toward the brook, whose foliage ran from light green through pale gold and dull brown to crimson? I shut my eyes last night and saw them, and heard the murmur of the wind in the old pine by the spring. Do you remember Mrs. Hornbeam would mind if I ran out for Thanksgiving? I'm positively homesick."

"Hiram told me," said Hiram, "to ask you to come out to the Settlement for Thanksgiving. She's got something better to eat than the turkey you had there. You mind that plum turkey you chased out of the oven. I'll be in the oven with you."

The reporter smiled in anticipation. "Hiram told me to say the 'yes, sir, you know what I mean in the sun.'"

"And they only fed him on veal," said the reporter, "Hiram you fill me with gratitude. The sidewalks are growing harder every day, and the streets more noisy. A lucky dog who owns a car is here yesterday to tell me what he saw in a run through the country for fifty miles or so, and my wandering foot has been itching ever since."

"I don't blame it," said Hiram. "You come out to the Settlement and get me to another Nature. Here at Hiram I send you back to town feel like a new man."

"Of how many of us," observed the reporter, "it may be said in the words of the poet—"

The world is too much with us; late and soon, getting and spending we lay waste our powers;—

One man's Nature that is ours; We have given our hearts away, a sordid boon.

"Yes, sir," said Hiram, "that old fellow knewed what he was talkin' about. I could tell you put it that way, but here—Bye!"

ATTEMPT ON LIFE OF HUGO HASSE

Motive is Revenge, Says Assailant—German Independent Socialist Leader Has Three Wounds

Berlin, Oct. 8.—(By the Associated Press)—Hugo Hasse, leader of the independent socialist party, was shot today a quarter of an hour before he was expected to make a sensational appearance at the national assembly in connection with the government's Baltic policies and the tolerant attitude of Berlin toward the west Russian anti-Bolshevik government.

This fact gave currency to a rumor that the attempt against Herr Hasse's life had a political origin, but a cross examination of Voss, his assailant, indicates that he was actuated by motives of personal revenge.

When the session opened, Konstantine Pehrensch, president of the national assembly, announced that Herr Hasse had been attacked and the house at that time voted him and his family, as well as his parents, an expression of sympathy.

Herr Hasse, accompanied by his wife, was going into the Reichstag building when a well dressed man fired several shots at him. Hasse and his wife jumped aside, seeking to find shelter behind a projection of the Reichstag building.

His assailant who is a native of Vienna, named Johann Voss, pursued his victim and fired again. Hasse afterwards was found to have been struck in the forehead and forearm. His wife, who was not injured, accompanied her husband, who had called to Helwig's limousine. Hasse's wounds were pronounced not dangerous.

Voss, who is fifty-one years of age and a leather worker, submitted calmly to arrest.

St. John Gets Good View of Big Plane on Way to New York

The Atlantic, Flying From Parrsboro, Moves Slowly Over City—Two Miles a Minute in Air Derby in States

The Handley-Page bomber Atlantic passed over the city at 120 o'clock (daylight time) en route to New York on her non-stop flight from Parrsboro, N. S. As she passed over the city at a moderate rate of speed and flying quite high citizens were attracted by the hurrying of the powerful engines and the strong report of the exhaust which could be heard long before she was discerned from the city streets. In appearance she greatly resembled the hydroplane which her crew made some months ago while en route to Quebec.

The passing of the bomber over the city excited widespread attention and when the noise of her engines was heard windows were thrown up and people crowded the sidewalks in order to get a glimpse of the highly reputed plane. Crowds rushed to the waterfront where they could discern the Atlantic and watch her progress as she swept in from the direction of Courtenay Bay and headed across the harbor and then turned south by southeast. It was hard to judge how fast she was traveling owing to her great height in the air, but it was not long before she was seen to be a large machine was evident for even at the great height she looked large and was making good time.

A returned aviator, who was an interested spectator, said that the bomber was making a headwind but despite this the eleven passengers were undoubtedly all comfortably seated in a cabin with port holes from which they could view the surrounding country.

Local photographers took a snap of the large machine as it passed over the city.

The Handley-Page carries eleven passengers. Vice Admiral Kern, Major Brockley, five mechanics, three newspaper men, Martin of the Montreal Press and Dennis of the Halifax Herald and Sports a motion picture operator.

The Handley-Page plane at Parrsboro was being used for her non-stop flight to New York. It had not yet taken the air.

A later dispatch from Parrsboro says that at 10 o'clock the engine started and the bomber was just about to take the air, some portion of the crew had been killed.

Repairs, the dispatch said, might occasion several hours' delay. A telephone message from Parrsboro later stated that the bomber left at five minutes before noon for New York.

The Air Derby. Chicago, Oct. 9.—Flying at the remarkable rate of approximately two miles a minute, First Lieut. B. W. Maynard yesterday left St. John, N. B., for Chicago, and was the only one to reach here. His was the first New York-Chicago aerial journey ever made between sunrise and sunset.

PUT IT UP TO THE BRITISH PREMIER TODAY

British Miners' Demands for Complete Nationalization

DEPUTATION TO LLOYD GEORGE

He is Expected to Refuse and Then Special Trades Union Congress Will be Called to Decide on Action to Force His Hand

London, Oct. 9.—With the country not yet fully recovered from the effects of the railroad strike, British miners will take the stage today, when a deputation will call on Premier Lloyd George to press for a complete nationalization of mines. The deputation consists of members of the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress, which met recently in Glasgow, and members of the executive of the miners' federation.

By coincidence, J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen and leader of the recent strike, will head the deputation as the new chairman of the parliamentary committee. This step was taken in accordance with a resolution adopted at the recent trades union congress of Glasgow, which pledged the congress to co-operate with the Miners' Federation in compelling the government to accept the majority report submitted by the coal commission headed by Sir John Sankey. Premier Lloyd George, before parliament adjourned, announced the government's decision not to accept the majority report, which recommended shorter hours, higher wages and a reform in the ownership system, and suggested nationalization, but said the government would merely nationalize minerals, with a sort of joint control of the industry.

If Lloyd George reiterates this decision today and refuses to accept nationalization, as it is assumed he will, a special trades union congress will be convened to decide upon the form of action to be taken by the miners to compel acquiescence.

The situation is commented upon especially in the light of the railroad strike, opinions differing as to whether the country may be called upon to face another period of industrial turmoil, or whether the miners will adopt less drastic tactics.

The Miners' labor correspondent says: "Should the government prove abate, it is quite possible the nation will find itself in a few days in a position even greater menace than it faced last week."

A general view is that there is not likely to be a resort to another "lightning strike," but may be a lot of miners' meetings throughout the country will be held before anything decisive is done. It is understood that the members of the executive of the Miners' Federation are sharply divided, some deprecating strong action following the recent industrial upheaval, while the extremists are said to favor an immediate strike.

CLEMENCEAU TO FIGHT IT TO THE END

Paris, Oct. 9.—Premier Clemenceau, former president of the republic, would not be a candidate for re-election either for the senate or for the chamber of deputies, according to his newspaper L'Homme Libre.

The probabilities of another assault upon the cabinet by the opposition has been increased by the action of the electoral committee of the chamber in advance of the peace treaty already has been deposited in Paris. The French ratification, however, has not reached there.

Ratification by the Italian parliament before it is finally effective.

Ratification by the French senate and President Poincaré's signature are expected this week. Ratification by the British crown is to be expected at any moment.

PEACE TREATY SOON EFFECTIVE

Paris, Oct. 9.—(By the Associated Press)—The German peace treaty, in consequence of its ratification by royal decree by King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, will become effective in fifteen days, according to the interpretation of the French press. There is considerable uncertainty in conference circles, however, whether the decree must be approved by the Italian parliament before it is finally effective.
