

Address of the Canadian Conference

OF THE

PRIMITIVE METHODIST CHURCH,

TO THE ENGLISH CONFERENCE.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through God the Father, Son, and Spirit.

We have pleasure in addressing to you our annual Letter, after the labors, trials and successes of another Conferential year.

During the past year our ears were often greeted with reports of your triumphs and progress in our Fatherland. The Lord of the Harvest is wonderfully blessing your efforts, and for numbers and strength you are not much behind the largest religious denominations of England. In America, Australia, and other parts of the world, where your Missionaries are laboring, the good work is prospering. That within fifty years such a vast host of living witnesses for Jesus Christ should have been raised up, to carry on the visible machinery of redemption in so many parts of the earth,
