ial changes in the personnel being made. The talented young ladies and gen-tlemen who composed the cast fairly excelled themselves and they were given excellent support by the chor-us. Especial credit is due Mr. O. F. Telymann, the composer, who per-sonally directed the production, as he proved himself a capable and efficient instructor. It is almost impossible to particularize as all the leading purts were ably handled. Robert Frezell, as Leo, made a more favorable impression, his voice being heards to good advantage in zeveral solos. His duet with Nelle was perticularize as born soldier, and should be in command of a regiment. His solos "Glory and Victory," and "To the Field" were sung with con-siderable dramatic spirit and vim. Path Result of Construction on Canadian Northern Port Arthur, Aug. 7.—News has been received here of an explosion on the Canadian Northern in which three men were killed and seventeen injured. The men were at work blast-ing in a rock cut at Sturgeon Falls. It is supposed one of the charges did not fire and the men went to work when it suddenly went off with the above result. The dead men were buried along the railway and the wounded taken to Aukokan Hospital, where they are being cared for. Turther news, just received, says three men were killed, seven serious-hy wounded and four others slightly hurt. The men had just about com-pleted work and had put in five blasts to finish the cut, but in the discharge only four of the five had exploded. They began to clear away mite in the fifth hole exploded. They are now being prepared and put in first-class, repur. §5 to $12 will buy a good Bicycle. Snap cash prices Cash will count. BOWMAN & Co soprano voice was heard to good ad-vantar, and she made quite a charm-ing appearance. Miss Abbie Willard, of St. Marys, is a perfect actress, and with her fine contratio voice sang and acted her way into the hearts of everybody. The maidens and lady cadets were simply bewitching and a smarter and prettier iot of girls will be hard to find anywhere. The cadets and soldiers made a fine appearance and won the hearty ap-plause of the audience by their chor-used and marches. The dudes and Zulus carried the house by storm. The weird war chorus and dance of the Zulus just beford the battle caused mony to feel anxious about the brave soldier boys. The battle scene between the British and Zulus was fieree and realistic. The Y.M.C.A. orchestra did excel-lent service throughout the perfor mance, while the excettent selections by the Foresters' band both before the performance and between acts ad-ded in no small degree to the enjoy-ment of the occasion.
