Election Cards.

To the ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CHARLOTTE.

GENTLEMEN,
Responding to a call from many of our most influential Freeholders, I shall be a Candidate for the seat in the Local Assembly vacated by the resignation of the Hon.
John McAdam.

Should I be honored with your confidence, I shall endeavor at all times to carry out the well understood wishes of the people, guard well your interests, and devote my best energies for the advancement of my native County, and the Province generally.

My father, the late Hon. James Brown, served you as a Legislator for over thirty years, and you may be assured it shall be my aim to carry out those principles of Progress, Economy, and Justice, which he always advocated.

I remain Gentlemen,
Yours most truly,
JOHN C. BROWN.
St. David, July 30, 1872.

To the Electors of Charlotte County.

GENTLEMEN,
Having been urged by many of you to become a Candidate for the Dominion Parliament, and believing that a majority of you desire it, I therefore announce that it is my intention to place myself at your service. To most of you I am personally known, and all of you know me by reputation, in these circumstances, it is not necessary that I should make a personal canvass.
Those of you who think me deserving of your confidence, will vote for me on the day of election, and if you prove to be a majority, I assure you that I will endeavor to do my duty to my Constituents, and to the Dominion generally.

The experience I have had in the capacity of representative, has taught me that it is not an easy matter to please the people, and this fact causes me not to be too exacting; yet I cannot resist the impression that our public men have quite over-estimated the ability of this country to bear taxation. The public debt, considering the population and resources of this Dominion is already large, and will be greatly increased, as the great public works already undertaken go on to completion, and it is my impression that the prospect of largely increased taxation has already a tendency largely to retard that encourage business enterprise, a rigid economy is therefore very desirable.

The revenue collected in the different Provinces of the Dominion should, as far as practicable, be applied in sustaining the institutions and in promoting public improvement in the Province where the money is raised, those who pay into the treasury are not satisfied to have the money expended at a remote distance from where they reside.

In 1866 a majority of you differed from me on confederacy, if you elect me at this time I shall be in a position to see as many of you as possible, and I shall endeavor to see as many of you as possible in your own district before the day of Election.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
A. H. GILLMOR, JUNR.
St. George, July 24, 1872.

To the Electors of
CHARLOTTE COUNTY.

GENTLEMEN,
I shall be a candidate for your suffrages at the approaching election to fill the vacancy in the Local Legislature caused by the resignation of the Hon. John McAdam.

My interests in this County are identical with yours. I have every motive to induce me to guard them well and faithfully, and if elected shall at all times give my utmost attention to the affairs of this County and the Province in general.

I shall endeavor to see as many of you as possible in your own district before the day of Election.
