

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

St. Mary's Picnic, Newcastle, realized over $700. It was a well managed and enjoyable affair throughout.

The Circus people were making ready for a performance on Ritchie's wharf yesterday afternoon.

R. E. CURRIE, Bishop Stevens of the Reformed Episcopal Church is announced to hold services in Chatham on Sunday next.

The SCHOE MIDDLETON, having discharged her first mackerel fare left Chatham on another trip Saturday night last.

The "NELSON" was run aground in the bay yesterday morning opposite Chatham and in a soft spot, she came off again when the tide rose.

ROYAL ARCANE.—A full attendance of members of Miramichi Council No. 441, Royal Arcane is requested at the meeting to-morrow evening—8 o'clock.

The EVANGELISTS have removed their tent from Chatham to Douglas Point, Steamer Miramichi and Andover run in connection with the services each evening.

DROWNED.—A little 4-year old son of Mr. John McPee, who lives at Upper Chatham, was drowned off the Basville Wharf while playing on Saturday afternoon last.

A VERY HEAVY gale visited Chatham on Friday evening last and finding the windward side of the evangelists tent ready to admit the cool air, lifted the whole structure and it was blown down, rendering its re-erection necessary.

The services were as usual the next day.

SUBDUED DEATH.—Mr. Samuel McKnight of Napan dislocated his shoulder a few days ago and came to Chatham yesterday to have it set. The operation was performed yesterday morning at 10 o'clock by Drs. Baxter and J. S. Benson.

He suddenly expired.

BARBETTOS PISCES.—The picnic at Lower Bartlettos in connection with St. Peter's Church (Rev. Father Morrissey) ought to be the best of the season.

The grounds attractive and the running of the steamer during the day will afford ample opportunity for the numerous friends of the worthy pastor to testify their good will on the occasion.

ROMANCE OF THE ARK.—The lady tripart and a ticket mill. Her circus troupe quietly had themselves married at Picton last Tuesday, to the intense disgust of the lady's papa, who figures as the big bad clown, and who looked upon the proposed son-in-law with extreme disfavor.

He had to swallow his wrath and be as funny as he knew how, while his daughter faire smile a smile on the trapeze as she thought how badly the old man was left—Pictos News.

VOLUNTEERS IN LUCK.—It is stated that should be considered good authority that the Fredrickson soldiers, who are the St. John volunteers, will each receive 100 acres of land in the Northwest in consequence of their willingness to fight against Riel and his associates—Fredrickton News.

It does not appear to be really settled that the lands are to be given as stated, but should it be ascertained, the North-western men who responded to the Government's call and held themselves in readiness for days to proceed to the front, ought to be treated the same as the others.

JUST LIKE HIM.—The Newcastle "Mining Link" has had several lateral competitors in the Miramichi Times during the past week. A glance in one of these is as follows:—

Smith, we believe, once edited a certain "comic" paper in Montreal, which was abandoned for that reason. Proof enough of what a flourishing concern it must have been.

The above illustrates the "cavalier" writer. The gentleman referred to never edited a paper in Montreal, although he had the best office in that direction that the Times could present, and such being the case the ill-refered of the Newcastle writer ought not to have been allowed to appear.

Clayton, however, seems to like that kind of thing, and perhaps, we ought not to object to its enjoyment of it.

SAVED FROM DUNGEON.—Mr. John Livingston, formerly of St. John, now residing in Montreal, where he is editor of the Herald, writes to the Gazette of this city:—

I desire, publicly and very gratefully, to thank Mr. Antoine Bureau, of St. Rose, for his prompt and fearless rescue of my daughter Annie from the hands of the nefarious afternoon. Annie, with other quite small children, was playing on a platform of float recently constructed by the boat club at the toll bridge, and accidentally fell into water, and, as it happened, the child had repeatedly sunk and risen, and had apparently gone down for the last time when Mr. Bureau, who was working in the vicinity, without an instant's hesitation plunged into the river, and after diving once or twice brought up the almost lifeless body and hurried with the child to our residence, where the treatment of the child on taking her from the water yielded happily to her rapid recovery.

The child is five years old.

ART NOTES.—In the city, on Saturday, was Mr. C. Cleveland, formerly of Montreal, now of Boston, who had in his possession a number of oil paintings executed by himself, and of more than ordinary interest. Mr. C. has just returned from a sketching tour of the Restigouche river.

All of the scenes he has portrayed are declared to be faithful pictures by those familiar with the locality. Especially good are a series of paintings of the noble salmon taken in the river by members of the Restigouche club.

Mr. Cleveland dealt with Mr. C. engaged for this work. He also obtained an order to paint a grinner for Lady Macdonald. Mr. Cleveland dealt with his fine subjects in a manner entirely original with himself, and the careful way in which he has developed the finer points, scales, fins, etc. is well worthy of inspection.—Telegraph.

Mr. Cleveland exhibited some of his work at the Dominion Centennial Exhibition in St. John, and, as everybody who was acquainted with the sub- "knew" was not properly treated. A man, "vice alioce" reported as bearing Mr. Cleveland's name was far ahead of any work of the kind exhibited at the exhibition, and in a most disadvantageous and un-pleasant position as to certain parties were afraid that "Merits would be discovered.

They are glad, therefore, to learn that so good a result is meeting with the appreciation which the above paragraph indicates.
