It would seem as though the strength and efficiency of the Confederate armies have been every greatly underestimated, or that the Northerenes have placed too great reliance upon their own might. Since but flue, indeed since the beginning of the war, Southern a have had the advantage over their of ponens in almost every engagement. Northerns talk of the absurdity of eight in llions of people engaging in a war with a nation of twenty millions, yet it almost invariably happens that, the South can concentrate more mean at a given point than the North, has as much of the material of war, as good soldiers, as skilful generals.

At Kent, Carleton County, on Tuesday, 28th May, after a lingering illness, endured with resignation and christian meekness, Mr. Edward Kearney, in the 60th year of his age. He was for overeal years very much afflicted, so that he had to endure wearlsome days and loss of sleep at nights. This prevented his attendance in the public service of the sunctuary, but he was favoured with the sympathy and prayers of his christian brethere, who often visited him in his affliction. Brother Mearney was truly convinced of his by the Holy Spirit when very young, and lived a consistent member of the F. C. Baptist Church. cound a ready date in saing your Dys-gopis Bitters. There was a young lady on board the Steamer who was very sick, and the Doctor tried every thing that he could think of, all to no purpose. When I got in conversation with him, I said I had a bette of Medicine that would cure her.
He administered that who are troubled with sea-sirkness to take some of the above medicine with them. I have
