SQUIRE ROBINSON DEAD.

SQUIRE ROBINSON DEAD.

one of the oldest and best known residents of Spruce Lake, passed away in the 80th year of his age. Though he had been alling for some time, no serious turn had been looked for, and his death was wholly unexpected. Mr. Robinson was born and passed the greater part of his life in the vicinity of Spruce Lake and had become thoroughly identified with the affairs of that parish. At one time he was a county councillor and at the time of his death he was coroner and justice of the peace. The deceased was a man of wide reading and remarkable intellect; his principles were always of the highest and best; in politics he was a strong conservative and in religion a regular attendant of the Carleton Presbyterian church. Mr. Robinson was early connected with the old Shore Line, now the New Brunswick Southern, and always took a great interest in the road. He is survived by a widow, formerly a Miss Henderson, of this city.

team of horses. The trackway on which the boiler is moved is necessarily short, so as to take up as little space of the street as possible. The distance which the boiler is moved at a time is consequently only the length of the track, and after it has been brought to a standstill, the track is relaid in front of it preparatory to another move. The boiler is now near Mill street, and its passage across that busy thoroughfare will momentarily interfere with traffic. However, as Messrs. Fleming have the right of way for the time required to move the boiler across, truckmen and other teamsters will have to rest content at the brief delay.

The second boiler of the same weight and dimensions as the one now being removed, will be ready to leave the workshop some time next week.

The removal of these large boilers is a task of no amail proportions, and is being interestedly watched by crowds.

DEFI FOR LITTLEJOHN

AND McLEOD

AND McLEOD.

The Sydney Post of yesterday published the following:—
Sporting Editor Post:—
In regard to meeting Joseph Francis or George W. Lewis in a boxing contest, I have this to say. I won't meet Lewis because he is too close a friend of mine, but I will willingly meet Francis, Bridgeport, Littlejohn and "Bet" McLeod, St. John, or Tom Foely, of Halifax. I will bet $100 that I can trim either one of them in 15 or 20 rounds. I can be communicated with at any time at the Hotel Savoy, Sydney. Now this is a chance for the wise ones to come to the front and if they think they have a walk over now is their chance.

I am not depending on a license, as we can go out of the county to settle matters; it don't require but the principals and seconds. I have no manager, and, consequently, look after my own affairs. I think money talks and if I don't hear from any of these people I will consider they are afraid and won't bother with them any more.

Yours truly,
JAS. McINNIS.

THE BANGOR CHORUS.

It Does Not Take Kindly to the Idea of Singing Aida.

of Singing Aida.

According to the Bangor papers the most interesting feature of the Bangor Festival chorus's annual meeting, held on Tuesday night in the Memorial Parlors, was the significant celerity with which the local singers, one and all, agreed that notwithstanding the recent suggestion of Director Chapman, it will be a manifest impossibility, not to add an exquisite absurdity, to attempt the opera of Aida in concert form at the festival of '04. The opera of Faust was successfully produced at the festival this season, it is true; but Faust is much less difficult than is Aida, is richer in tuneful melodies, and, moreover, requires less effort from the male section of the chorus,—and ft is in the male section, it will be remembered that the Bangor chorus is at present especially deficient. The sentiment of the meeting will be conveyed in a letter to Director Chapman, together with the suggestion that some lighter and more simple composition be selected—preferably the melodious and pleasing Il Trovatore.

Rev. Charles Coffin, of the Woodstock A. M. E. church, will preach at St. Philip's church tomorrow evening. He will also assist Mr. Coffin and George McLaughlan in the evangelical services at the Indiantown Mission tomorrow afternoon. Mrs. Charles Coffin, who arrived on the American boat this week, will take part in the concert to be given at Glad Tidings hall, Brussels street, next Wednesday evening for the benefit of St. Philip's church.

The death occurred last night, shortly after eleven o'clock, of Mrs. Isaac Worden, wife of Capt, Worden of the Crystal Stream. Deceased, who was a most estimable lady, had been ill for some time. She was twice married, her first husband being Wm. McCaw of this city, by whom she had three children, two sons and one daughter. It was at the residence of one son, Ernest, who is employed at the Dufferin hotel, that Mrs. Worden died. The funeral will take place on Monday at 3 o'clock.

CAR OFF THE TRACK.

Some careless teamster gave the I. C. R. yardmen an unsolicited job this morning. While passing close to a sidng are Pond street, a heavy-metaled tin can toppled from his waggon and hel all across the track. Unmindful of his loss whe whistlingly drove on, but had be known of the names—harsh ones some of them—that were to be fiung a him not many minutes after, he would probably have taken more pains to avoid his loss. Not long after the teamster had passed a shunter with a freight car in front of it moved up the sliding. head steward, there came a remarkable story of alleged mutlny and murder at sea.

Eldred was shot Monday, and immediately thereafter mysterlously disappeared. He was found last night at No. 58 State street by detectives of the Fulton street police station and locked up on complaint of Captain Ohls, of the Tennyson. The captain charges Mantell and Eldred with rifting his cabin and stealing a sum of money.

Mantell, when the cell door closed upon him, said: "While the Tennyson was on the way from Brooklyn to Rio Janeiro a fireman, first tortured with live coals thrown in his face, was brutally murdered and the body cast into the sea. Who this fireman was I do not know.

"As I learned the story after the murder the man had a dispute with the chief engineer and had refused to obey his orders. This on the ocean is mutiny, and when the captain attempted to enforce his authority the fireman picked up a shovel to defend himself. Coals were thrown upon him and he was felled with an iron bar and instantly killed."

This story the police investigated before the Tennyson sailed yesterday, and on the assurance of the ship's surgeon that the fireman in question had died of heart failure and had not been abused, they dropped the case, sattefied that Mantell's story was untrue.

PROMISED $10,000 TO CHILDREN NURSES eorge W. Todd, Alded When Frozen, Gave Them His Note and Now They Sue Estate.

Sue Estate.

UTICA, N. Y., Oct. 9.—A legal battle to obtain $10,000 from the estate of George W. Todd, who left $56,000 in money, deposited in dozens of banks in this country and Canada, was begun today in Rome. The defendant is the Trust and Guarantee Company, of Ontario, Canada.

Jennie Crawford and her brother, George, were living with an aunt in West Schuyler in 1878. A knock was heard on the Crawford door on Christmas evs that year and a man was found against the door. His hands and feet were frozen and he was half dead from exposure. He was taken into the house and remained four weeks, nursed and cared for by the two children. He was dressed in ragsed and ill-fitting garments, and when he expressed a desire to pay for their services the family laughed, for they did not think he had a cent.

The man called for paper and, being unable to write, dictated this:

I promise to pay Jennie Crawford $5,000 when I die, and George Crawford $6,000. I give Jennie $1 for socks tonight.
