Mayor Bullock returned last night on the Ocean Limited from Quebec, where he has been attending the Quebec Tercentenary celebration. Mr. Bullock speaks in the highest terms of all the features of the celebration. He was especially impressed with the magnificence of pageants, many of the costumes for which, he says, were imported from Paris. While away the Mayor did not neglect the interests of the city. WESTERN MURDERERS EXECUTED TODAY

John Siemsen and Louis Dabner, who were executed at San Quentin today, committed a series of crimes in San Francisco soon after the earthquake and fire of April, 1906. From the weapon they used, they became known as the "gas pipe thugs." They were executed for the murder of M. Murak, a Japanese banker, but, according to their own confession, they were guilty of two other murders and several other assaults and robberies. Siemsen, who was a mere boy from the interior of the state and a fruitless effort was made to secure the commutation of his sentence to life imprisonment on account of his previous good character. At noon October 2nd, Siemsen and Dabner entered the Klamm Hotel, a Japanese bank, of which M. Murak was manager, and M. Sasaki, assistant manager. The former was beaten to death and Sasaki to seriously injured that his reason was impaired for some time.

The murders secured $2,000. A month later Siemsen and Dabner walked into the jewelry store of Henry Kinko, a Japanese bank, of which M. Murak was manager, and M. Sasaki, assistant manager. The former was beaten to death and Sasaki to seriously injured that his reason was impaired for some time.

MOUSTACHE COULD REM A BRIDE AND LIBERTY.

Promises to Shave Off But Forgets While Drowning Boredom.

PITTSBURGH, July 30.—Because he loves his moustache too well, John Spilling, of Shuaburg, widower, has sacrificed all chances for immediate return to marital bliss and was arrested last night on a charge of mistreating his children.

"The moustache must go" is said to have been the decree of a pretty blonde applicant for the title of Mrs. John Spilling when she learned how much attention John had showered upon it during his seven years of widowhood. John balked, but finally agreed to sacrifice the moustache.

John started to a barber shop to fulfill his agreement. Once away from his pretty fiancée John's thoughts returned to his moustache. Then it is said, he went to a saloon to drown his sorrow.

When John returned home the moustache was with him. The blonde left immediately. Thereupon, it is alleged, John chased his children from the house with a revolver.

Frank Travis, a youth, was before the police magistrate this morning, charged with refusing to obey the orders of the Salvage Corps on Clarence street during a fire yesterday. He was fined $20 or two months jail, which was allowed to stand against him. Magistrate Henderson said that it should prove a warning to boys and that grown up persons might benefit by the sentence, and obey orders given by the officials at a fire.

LORD ROBERTS TOO TIRED TO ATTEND LUNCHEON

Today's Programme Postponed—Hallifax Girl Has Success in Mothball Exam.

MONTEBELL, July 31.—Louis Borden, of Halifax Ladies' College, has won a $100 exhibition at McGill in the matriculation examination good for the first year in the Arts course. Lord Roberts is indisposed and the luncheon and dinner today had to be postponed. It is nothing serious but he has found the last few weeks tiring and is in need of rest.

POLICE COURT

There was a bench full of prisoners in the police court this morning, and among the lot were drunks, tramps, pugilists, and others.

Wm. Doody appeared with a face that looked as if he had been flitting with a King Square lawn mower. His brother Harry explained to the court that William was extremely noisy and lazy about the house. The result was that the defendant was ordered to jail in default of paying a fine of four dollars.

Alex. Diggs, with a police record worthy a monument was before the court charged with a brutal assault on Mary Jane Toner, a white woman, who has the credit of being Diggs' "steady." Mary Jane, who changed her name from Toner to Diggs, informed the court that she could not go out of the house last week and look any body straight in the face because Alex had kicked her in the face and blackened both of her eyes. She said that yesterday he came home drunk from Carleton, and assaulted her, knocking her to the ground, and then threatened to give her such a kicking that had he accomplished his threat there would only be a very small portion of her left.

Alexander had a very poor argument to put up before the court and was fined $20. The ready cash was not in sight and he was escorted to the county jail to spend two months.

Thomas McNally, a circus tramp, was found in the Lake of the Woods. The murder of Mary Jane Toner last evening by the janitor, Thomas Nash, who saw the man after he had entered a room on Walker's wharf and he went to jail for ten days.

McNally claimed to have no recollection of being in the building, and was remanded to jail. A few different reports have been told the police and it is believed that the man is guilty of robbing the building.

Three Swedes, John Punstorn, Albert Beckman, and Alfred Brax, were charged with wandering about the streets and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves. Peter Novobodskoff, of the city, was found drunk on the North Wharf. The Swedes explained that they were from Havelock and were enroute to Fredericton, where they expected to be hired to work on the Grand Trunk Pacific. Three were allowed to go with the proviso that they leave town immediately. Novobodskoff, who was drunk, was fined four dollars, and he went to jail with a bank book worth $22.

Two other drunks were fined the usual amount.

MILLS CLOSE DOWN.

Tonight, when Stetson & Cutler & Co's mills and Luther Jordan's mill at Woodstock close the employees will be out of work for an indefinite length of time. Owing to the extremely poor condition of the streets and the slight demand for lumber, it has been decided to close the mills for an indefinite period.

With some of the mills already closed on account of the strike of the Shingle Sawyers, this will be a rather serious matter a lot of workmen and tradesmen in the north end.

PERSONAL.

Ralph Bonnell came in on the C. P. R. at noon today.

J. Fraser Gregory returned from Fredericton this morning.

Pearl Black returned to the city this morning.

PREMIER SCOTT DECIDES TO RUN IN SWIFT CURRENT

In Letter of Acceptance He States Reasons for Early Dissolution

REGINA, Sask., July 30.—Premier Scott has decided to be a candidate in Swift Current, one of the new ridings. In his letter of acceptance he replies at some length to the criticism of his opponents that the sudden announcement of dissolution was taking an unfair advantage. He says: "Our opponents take exception to the holding of the elections at this time. When I accept his counsel and make the first legislative term one of three years he cannot consistently complain. The Election Act provides the length of notice to be given. The minimum time from dissolution to polling day may be twenty-three days by the act which was agreed to without question in the assembly. We have allowed twenty-five days, and were prevented from allowing longer time by the Act in 27 days, which exceeds by six days the time allowed by Mr. Haultain's own act."

The constitutional reason for the present dissolution is absolutely unquestionable, if not imperative. That reason is the Redistribution Act. By unanimous consent an Act was passed creating forty-one seats in the Assembly to replace twenty-five. To mention a single item, the Rural Municipality Bill, very important work awaits the next session, which is promised for the autumn to permit the Rural Municipality law to be taken advantage of at the New Year. An autumn session with a properly representative assembly is impossible except by a general election right now, if the convenience of farmers is to be observed, because the present crop prospect makes certain that farmers will be busy with their own work from the day reaping begins until late in the fall.

"I am reminded that Mr. Haultain in 1902 brought on an election with even shorter notice at a time when farmers were in the midst of seeding, and when the roads were impassable to a degree that in many places electors were unable to reach the polls. That was not an example to copy. We have chosen the time in the whole year most convenient for the people. You may have observed the declaration made by Mr. Haultain to effect that the people have no new issues before them. If his declaration be true, then it would be a reflection against himself and the press supporting him to say that the people are not prepared to vote upon ten days' notice instead of twenty-five. The complaint against the government on this score is not justified. We can only interpret it as a confession on the part of our opponents that they have no case and that they expect defeat."

Furthermore, the volume and importance of the legislation which has been passed since 1905, together with the policy outlined by us respecting education, free school readers, and especially branch railway extensions, make it eminently proper that the people of the province, for whom the government are the trustees, should have brief illness.

From his very early age the late Mr. Boyle was a member of the Royal Orange Association. He was a member of Golden Grove Lodge, of which he became master. Mr. Boyle was highly esteemed both by his brother policemen and by the citizens of St. John.
