LORD MINTO CONDEMNED.

Governor General's Discourtesy to Lord's Day Alliance Bitterly Criticised.

President Dr. Fotheringham Also Attacks St. John Police System as Used for Partizan Purposes—Demands Its Direct Control by City Council.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun. The only feature of interest at the annual meeting of the St. John branch of the Lord's Day Alliance last evening was the address of the retiring president, Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, in which the speaker bitterly criticised the action of Lord Minto regarding his official visit to the city, strongly condemned the negligence of the St. John police department and the unseasonable fluency back of it by which open and flagrant violations of the law were countenanced, and declared that the laws regarding liquor selling, immoral houses and Sabbath observance would not be enforced until the whole control of the police force was restored to the city Council and the Christian ratepayers of the city. For at present, he said, it was clear "that the mayor is not the chief magistrate" save by title and courtesy. The board of safety can give us no guarantee, for its staff of its authority; others, however, of our municipal and responsible authorities, are using the police force of the city to serve their own partizan purposes.

Regarding the governor general, the speaker, after referring to his excellent visit here and the communication sent to him by the alliance to avoid his official arrival and departure from St. John on the Sabbath, said: "The crowd which assembled to welcome their excellencies on Sunday evening, when they ought to have been in their respective churches, filled up the line of waiting by denouncing the impertinent interference of the alliance, so that Lord Minto was emboldened to publicly and offensively repudiate being influenced by gentlemanly courtesy in conforming to the prayer of the memorial, and to reply to its terms of studied defiance by a rude and curt acknowledgment of its receipt. We submit that the action of the alliance did not merit this treatment, nor was it worthy of a Scottish nobleman and the representative of a Sabbath-observing King Edward."

The meeting itself, on account of lack of advertisement or for other reasons, had not excited great public interest. Of the members of the Alliance there were present in the vestry of Germania street Baptist church Rev. Dr. Fotheringham, Rev. Dr. Wilson, Judge Forbes, Rev. J. D. Freeman, Rev. D. Long, Rev. Geo. Steel, W. J. Parks and R. T. Hayes. Outside of these a number consisted of less than a dozen people.

After an opening prayer by Rev. J. D. Freeman, followed by a solo by R. S. Ritchie, Rev. Dr. Wilson, secretary of the alliance, presented the report of the work done last past year. The expenses had been $251, which had been met by generous donations, of which $40 was from the local C. E. union. During the year 14 branches had been organized in the province, which were amalgamated into a provincial alliance, for the maintenance of which the St. John branch was to contribute $100. The investigation before Premier Tupper referred to in the memorial was stated that ample evidence had been produced to prove every charge in the memorial. The offered co-operation of the city labor unions was mentioned with pleasure and great regret expressed at the resignation of Dr. Fotheringham from the presidency, which he had so faithfully and efficiently filled.

On motion of Judge Forbes, seconded by Rev. D. Long, the report was received and a vote of thanks passed to the secretary. Then came a solo by Prof. Titus, followed by the retiring president's address. In opening Dr. Fotheringham traced the history of the observance of the Sabbath Day Observance law and of the flagrant violations of it which led up to the memorial to the government. He told of waiting upon the chief of police to endeavor to ascertain the reasons for the present state of the law, and how the chief, who violated the law, permitted the chief, though always treating them with courtesy, claimed to be incredulous regarding violations, and promised that any discovered would be severely dealt with. He then stated that the alliance were persuaded that the chief was controlled by outside and responsible influence, so they decided to appeal to the government and investigate the matter.

The speaker then turned aside to discuss the Lord Minto episode, extracting from his remarks regarding which are quoted above. After alluding to the absolute knowledge that the plans of his excellency were altered by the letter sent him by the alliance, which he read, Dr. Fotheringham went on to discuss the procedure of the investigating commission, and stated that the alliance proved conclusively before the commission the habitual Sunday violation of the Beer License Act, the prevalence of the sale of liquor on the Lord's day with the knowledge of the police and the excessive granting of licenses by the board of license commissioners. They also proved he said: "That Dr. J. M. Smith, who was appointed a member of the board of license commissioners in June, 1901, went to certain druggists on Saturday evening, July 20th, and said to them in effect, 'You may sell soda tomorrow, and I'll make it all right.' They did so, and have to this present date done so, with the promised immunity. Dr. Smith swore that he did this absolutely of his own authority, consulting with no other member of the board or with any member of the government. Yet the public may be exposed to the danger of a person so unprincipled and holding no important official position can thus throw the protecting aegis of his 'I'll make it all right,' around the violators of the law, so that the police, the chief or his inspector dare not molest them. Dr. Smith continues a member of the

GRATEFUL WORDS.

A Quebec Gentleman who found in DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS a Perfect Cure for His Dyspepsia.

One who has never had to endure the dreadful pain and depression of Dyspepsia cannot understand the wonderful gratitude of the slave who has found freedom from the bonds of this torturing monster. This feeling of gratitude is so overwhelming that its expression is often hard for these inexperienced ones to understand. It lends a color to the letters received in praise of DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS which makes them seem almost overdone. "I thank Providence for having been so good as to put DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS in my way," is a sentence selected from a recent letter. This is a sample of what thousands say in different ways. "D. C. Hunt, the assistant Post Master at Opemican P. O., in Quebec, tells of his deliverance in this way: 'Dyspepsia had me for a victim for some time—I suffered very severely—I saw an advertisement of DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS and the cures they were making of very bad cases. 'I had a doctor then, but he could cure me so promptly and effectively they would be worth trying, and I began to use them. 'From the very start I was benefited and now I am completely cured. 'My thankfulness to DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS is too great for words to express, but I will always recommend them to those who may be suffering with Stomach Trouble or Dyspepsia. 'Such warm expressions of gratitude are won by very few medicines, and testify in the most eloquent manner the genuine curative qualities of DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS. 'I saw many today enjoying the glad blessing of good health who but for DODD'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS would still be the melancholy and miserable victims of Stomach Troubles of one kind or another. 'Is it any wonder then that strong language is used in expressing the thankfulness of these liberated captives.

WENT TO SEE KING EDWARD. Jolly Experiences of an American Boy Who Sailed From St. John on a Schooner. (The American Boy.) Wilbur Johnson, a fifteen-year-old Washington City boy, is the hero of quite an adventure. The boy went to England last summer for an outing and snap-shot camera expedition, and was royally entertained by the King and Queen. He set out from St. John, N. B., on the 9th of June for England by schooner. Upon his arrival in London he was unstrung his camera and went to work. One day he came to Marlborough House, the residence of the King. Handling the guard a piece of silver, he went inside the gates. Just as he was about ready to press the bulb on a good snap shot, he was startled to see an elderly gentleman standing directly in front of him. "Hello, sonny, what are you going to do?" he asked. "The boy told his story, and the gentleman said, 'You can't take a picture of Marlborough House.' He informed him that he was the Duke of Argyll. He then asked the boy if he wanted to see the King, and the upshot of the matter was that the Duke agreed to present the boy at Marlborough House on Wednesday morning following. Of course the boy was there at the appointed time, dressed in the uniform of the Washington High School Cadets, of which he is a member. "I see you are an officer," began the King, after a hearty salutation. "No, sir, I am only a private," he answered. "Ah, I thought you were an officer." Then the boy explained to him that the officers wore shoulder straps and told him all about the high school cadets and how for four years at the Central High School at Washington had carried off the flag in drill contests, and how this high school had the fastest runners, the best athletic teams, the broadest jumpers—in fact, the best of everything in sports. After a while the King tapped a little silver bell, and a servant came in and bowed his head to His Majesty. The King ordered tea, and the man brought it in and served it in little cups, without milk or sugar. Just after tea had been served Queen Alexandra came in, asked him a few questions and became greatly interested in what the boy told her of his little sister and brother. Then the Queen told the boy that she had a picture of Edward, the Black Prince; the crown of Mary II, the sword of King Arthur of the Round Table and many other wonderful things."

WEDDED AT THE RANGE, QUEENS CO.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, Feb. 19th, at the residence of Mrs. Sarah McVicar, The Range, Queens Co., when her only daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to C. C. Ferguson of Lakeville, Sanbury Co. The ceremony, which took place in the presence of about thirty of the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties, was performed by Rev. Harry Harrison of Sheffield. The bride looked charming in a suit of cream mousseline de soie. The presents were both numerous and valuable, including a fur coat from the groom, set of furs from the bride's mother, a set of dining chairs, rocky and chamber set from the parents and sisters of the groom, a handsome china set and parlor lamp, besides many useful and costly articles in glass, linen and silverware.

THE DEATH ROLL.

CAMPBELLTOWN, N. B., Feb. 25.—Alexander Dickie of Seaside died last night at the age of seventy-seven years. There are few men in Restigouche county who enjoyed the respect of his fellow-citizens in the measure he did, and the sympathy with his bereaved family is general.

ST. ANDREWS, Feb. 25.—W. D. Forster was advised today of the death of his brother, C. Cameron Forster, in Australia, on the 20th of November. The deceased learned the drug business in Walker's drug store, St. John. With Boles DeVeber, Wm. Smith and Wm. Campbell he went to Australia in 1852. His companions returned to New Brunswick, but he remained behind. He was sixty-nine years of age.

THE LATE WHITEFIELD CAMP.

R. C. Elkin has received a letter from Captain Barnes of the Annie & Eva Hooper giving the particulars of the death of Mate Whitefield Camp. It appears that shortly after the vessel left New York, on the 14th inst., Mr. Camp had occasion to go out on the job boom. A short time afterwards he was seen to fall backwards into the water and sank at once. Nothing was seen of him again. At the time of the accident, the sea was not at all rough, and there was nothing to knock the man overboard.

THE SCOTCHMAN'S GROWTH OF POPULATION AND DECREASE OF THE GAELIC LANGUAGE.

(London Chronicle). A parliamentary paper has been published presenting some interesting results with reference to Scotland of the census of 1901. The statistics are as follows: Males, total 4,472,103, divided by the number of separate families, yields an average of five persons to a family. The statistics in reference to housing are very satisfactory. There are nearly a million houses for nearly four million two hundred thousand people, which suggests a very liberal allowance of house room, which Londoners may well envy. In 1881, when the population was 4,026,647, the inhabited houses were 217,668, and the number of separate families 169,089. The figures are: Houses, 2,262,514 inhabited; in separate tenements, 2,062,288. There are now more than three rooms for every four persons.

Is Gaelic being lost? The Registrar General has set himself to answer this question by introducing into the returns columns for "persons speaking Gaelic only" and "persons speaking Gaelic and English." It will come as a surprise to many that in Scotland there are no fewer than 25,000 persons who speak Gaelic only. Most of these, of course, are in the counties, in the burghs they number only 2,800, and on board ships in Scottish waters only 50. Highlanders will be interested to learn that 262,700 Scots speak Gaelic in addition to the language of Scott and Berns.

BLONDIN ARRESTED.

Charged With Murder of His Wife Last Summer.

Identified in New York by a Boston Detective—The Prisoner's Story of His Wanderings. NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Joseph Wilfrid Blondin, who is charged with the murder of his wife by cutting out her heart, was arrested here today. He was identified by a detective from Boston while he was making application for an engineer's license. The prisoner admitted his identity, but professed to know nothing of the killing on Wednesday morning following. Yesterday Blondin called at the bureau of boiler inspection at headquarters to apply for an engineer's license. He evidently did not notice his own picture posted on the wall, with the usual announcement of a reward for his apprehension. The similarity between the portrait and the face of the applicant caught the eye of a roundsman, who slipped out and notified Captain Titus of the detective bureau. Captain Titus directed him to tell the police station at Boston, and telegraphed to Boston for a detective who could identify the man. When Blondin returned this morning he was instantly identified by the Boston detective, at a signal from whom four policemen arrested him in a hotel at the station at Boston. He had secured his residence here before he could offer any resistance. In court the prisoner was remanded to await extradition papers. At headquarters he declared that he last saw his wife while he was seeing her on the station at Boston. He had been later of the discovery of her body, he feared, he said, that he would be accused of the murder and fled to New York. He said that he had lived in Brooklyn, Mount Vernon and White Plains, and had made several trips to the station on a North German Lloyd steamer. When arrested he said that he was endeavoring to obtain the position of engineer in a hotel in which he worked.

BRAIN FOOD.

IS OF LITTLE BENEFIT UNLESS IT IS DIGESTED.

Nearly everybody will admit that as a nation we eat too much meat and too little of vegetables and the grains. For business men, office men and clerks, and in fact everyone engaged in sedentary or indoor occupations, grains, milk and vegetables are much more healthful. Only men engaged in a severe outdoor manual labor can live on a heavy meat diet and continue in health.

WRECK OF GRECIAN.

Captain's Certificate Suspended for Three Months.

HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 25.—Commander Spain, Capt. Bloomfield Douglas and Capt. Murphy, who held an enquiry into the loss of the steamer Grecian, gave their decision this morning. The certificate of Capt. J. S. Harrison was suspended for three months from the date of the stranding of the steamer. The court recommended that he be granted a mate's certificate in the meantime. The certificates of the officers were not interfered with. The court was of the opinion that the loss of the ship was due to the one point westerly deviation of the compass. The captain, who had advised the pilot of the same, should have seen that allowances were made and the captain was therefore in fault. The lead should also have been used when a snow squall was met with just previous to the Grecian going ashore.

PRESENTATION MONDAY EVENING.

Monday evening Rev. Miles Trafton, pastor of the Carleton street Reformed Baptist church, and Mrs. Trafton were agreeably surprised at their new home on Wright street by a large number of ladies and gentlemen of the congregation. During the evening E. Cosman presented Mr. and Mrs. Trafton with an address and purse containing thirty-two dollars, and Mrs. Cosman, on behalf of the ladies, presented them with a handsome sideboard. Mr. and Mrs. Trafton were completely taken by surprise and fittingly responded. Short speeches were made by C. K. Short, Walter Wilson and H. H. Cosman, readings, songs and instrumental selections were given by several of those present, and the evening was passed in a thoroughly enjoyable manner.
