Str. Calvin Austin Filled to Her Utmost Capacity—Recent Deaths

f BOSTON, Aug. 5.-An enormous exodus from this city and surrounding towns to the porth and east has been in progress during the past three four days. The Eastern Steamship Company's new boat, the Calvin Austin, is said to have broken all records for passenger traffic this year between Boston and St. John today, when she to 800 persons on board. Capt. Pike was unable to sail on time, so great was the crush and so numerous the pieces of baggage to be checked. The State of Maine carried away several hundred passengers. When the Austin salled today her flag was displayed at half-mast as a mark of respect for the date Capt. Ingraham. The captain was a brother of the commander of the Pentagoet, a boat which once ran to St. John, and was lost with all on board in the great storm of November, 1898. On the rallroads the high tide of travel this season was reached last Friday and Saturday. On Friday tation have been taxed severely Much surprise and regret followed the announcement today that Rev. Jas.

A. Francis, pastor of the Clarendon street Baptist church, was suffering from nervous breakdown, and had resigned his pastorate. Mr. Francis is so badly broken in health that he decided it would be impossible for him to continue his work here. Mr. Francis has been one of the leading missionary workers of the city and became very popular. He is only 40 years old, but trouble. He has been pastor of the Rev. Andrew Gray, D. D., of Matoor Ill., and formerly of Somerville, Mass., and Sussex, N. B., has returned after an extended tour of Egypt and the Holy Land. Rev. Dr. Gray is secretary of the diocese of Springfield, Ill. Britishers from all over Rhode Island to the number of 2,000 assembled at Crescent park Saturday for the celebration of British day. All sorts of games were played, including a number of cricket matches, and an elaborate military exhibition was given by several companies, many members of which have seen service under the British flag. The forenoon was devoted to a parade which was reviewed at the City Hall, Providence, by Governor Garvin and staff, Mayor Miller and members of the city council. The position of honor in the parade was assigned to the British Veterans' Asso- t ciation. The commands were out on dress parade and the uniforms particularly those of the Fraser Royal inders, attracted much attention. A WISE DOG

That Picked up Telegraphy, Played Poker, and Saved Its Owner.

This is the story of Tanquary's gam bling dog. You may doubt the facts as presented, if you must - though you will surely enjoy them-but you will hardly find a telegraph operator in Colorado who doesn't remember the dog, and who will not claim that they are entirely true. Tanquary's dog has not been living for some time now and Tanquary has disappeared from Colorado. The operator at Graneros, where Tanquary and his dog lived, recently unearthed a picture of the dog, and, having known Tanquary when he won the poker game that made the dog famous, he gave the following highly authentic account of that historic performance: "Everybody down at Graneros remembers Tan's pup," said the operator as he flashed the picture of the dog. "I remember the dog very well. Tanquary was the operator down there when I first came to Colorado.

"One day some one sent Tanquary a dog. It was a mean looking animal the average. Indeed all crops promof mingled breeding, and it had a tail ise a large yield, grain and root crops of the length, breadth, thickness and general outline of a banana. But the tatoes will be over the average when dog was welcomed, and soon made friends with the lonely operator.

"Although Tanquary taught the dog to get a good start. good many things, the brute went on the operator's assistance. The two grew more and more fond of each other, and once when Tanquary came up to see if Denver was still here he brought the dog with him. They had the prosecution of indoor work, and sundry adventures and finally brought up at a poker game behind a Wazee tage has been taken of the outings on

Mr. Parker said that there was some thing remarkable in the way Christ spoke of going away. From His words it was shown that His leaving was a necessity, but at the same time he as-those who have seen themselves are stunned by the realization. Sin is a disregard of God's will and a revolt against His authority. But Christ is personified hope. He heartened man as no one ever cheered and heartened before. He has assured His people that the judgment which awes them now may be robbed of all its terrors, for all may hear the words of hope:

'Come ye blessed of My Father.'

There is no need to dread the old doctrine of election, for the elect of God are simply "whoever will" and Christ ousness to all. It seems very easy to gain righteousness, but without the aid of Christ it would be a hopeless task.

He is the strengthener of man. His love and power are needed to save from despair and back up man's puny efforts, and with His help it is easy to beat back sin. But Christ must be taken into the life. It is not enough for a man to say that he believes the story of Christ. His heart must open and the Saviour be fully received into it.

When this is done the victory is won,
